Kajsiab House offers mental health services and community programming for Madison's Hmong community. In recent years, Kajsiab House has been operated by Journey Mental Health relying primarily on County-administered funds. Journey announced earlier this fall plans to discontinue services due to financial considerations. The proposed contract provides funding to Anesis Therapy that would be used to continue these services through the end of 2018. Anesis will serve as fiscal agent. Due to the timing of Journey's discontinuation of services, (expires Sept 28th) there is not adequate time to conduct an RFP without the interruption of programming.

COMMENTS REGARDING PURCHASES OVER $25,000

Anesis Therapy is a vendor with which the City of Madison has not contracted previously.
