Dear Brenda,

We would like to express our thanks and appreciation for your work with the City of Madison Early Childhood Care and Education Board and the Office of Community Services. Your professionalism, commitment, and expertise, combined with your dedication to serving under-represented populations has served the City Council, OCS, the ECCEB, and child care and community resource programs well.

We wish you well and hope that you will remain a strong advocate and voice in the community for quality early care and education and underserved populations.

Sincerely,

Joanne Brown
