| 1 | Not much | 3/12/2026 11:48 AM |
| 2 | It's relevant, timeless | 3/12/2026 11:47 AM |
| 3 | Concept | 3/12/2026 11:47 AM |
| 4 | It would not be an eyesore | 3/12/2026 11:46 AM |
| 5 | The brightness of colors and contrast of colors | 3/12/2026 11:45 AM |
| 6 | It's a beautiful piece of art and all art inspires more art and pride. Having a sculpture means more visitors and things to see in the wonderful city of Madison. | 3/12/2026 11:44 AM |
| 7 | I like the idea of having someplace for people to sit or gather, more shade would be nice. | 3/12/2026 11:37 AM |
| 8 | I love the idea and the art | 3/12/2026 11:36 AM |
| 9 | minimalism and integration naturally with the site | 3/12/2026 11:34 AM |
| 10 | It's beautiful and a new vantage point of birds, I love the momentum and that they can be viewed from many angles | 3/12/2026 11:33 AM |
| 11 | Site specificity | 3/12/2026 11:31 AM |
| 12 | I really appreciate the image of the depth of the pieces. Seeing the images in profile - so you can see the bird shape is fine. But I like seeing it from the angle that I can see the depth. | 3/12/2026 11:30 AM |
| 13 | I like the design of the bird skimming the water | 3/12/2026 11:27 AM |
| 14 | The scale is interesting, and the color. | 3/12/2026 11:26 AM |
| 15 | Nothing. | 3/12/2026 11:24 AM |
| 16 | I love the concept, the lines of it. It's beautiful. | 3/12/2026 11:22 AM |
| 17 | Not a lot | 3/12/2026 11:21 AM |
| 18 | It's a nice concept but I'd like to see no nighttime lighting as there's too much light pollution as it is. I really feel that we should be working to honor the tribal nations of Teejop to work on integrating honoring their ancestral lands in any art or design choices. | 3/12/2026 11:21 AM |
| 19 | #birds, am I right? Birds are pretty timeless. | 3/12/2026 11:19 AM |

| 21 | Simplicity | 3/12/2026 11:17 AM |
| 22 | More natural and integrates more readily into landscape than most artwork installations. | 3/12/2026 11:16 AM |
| 23 | bird design is really cool. but don't add lights. this will hurt birds | 3/12/2026 11:13 AM |
| 24 | Not one thing | 3/12/2026 11:12 AM |
| 25 | Nothing | 3/12/2026 11:11 AM |
| 26 | Nothing, to be honest. Although I support the arts, and am very happy there will be art at this site. Just not this art, I hope. Have you considered installing native gardens instead? | 3/12/2026 11:11 AM |

| 39 | I like the how it captures something beautiful in nature. | 3/8/2026 11:42 PM |
| 40 | I like that the benches are curved which encourages the people sitting on the bench to be eye-to-eye for conversation. I also like the visual of the 5 statues together. I do not think it would look as good with just one. | 3/8/2026 11:08 PM |
| 41 | The connections it draws between birds skimming the water and our local snow plows paving the way for us to get around Madison. I also think it is aesthetically appealing and doesn't disrupt the natural landscape surrounding it. | 3/8/2026 3:01 PM |

| 10 | No | 3/12/2026 11:31 AM |
| 11 | I would like it to be installed in a way that does not require string trimming. The waves inset in a broader concrete that a mower could go over, for example, could prevent additional weekly maintenance during the summers. | 3/12/2026 11:30 AM |
| 12 | Cost | 3/12/2026 11:27 AM |
| 13 | I don't understand how wide the statues are. And, the statues or the figures look more like a some anonymous award show design. They look too skinny or spindly to stand up to the rigors of time outside. | 3/12/2026 11:26 AM |
| 14 | Looks stupid. | 3/12/2026 11:24 AM |
| 15 | Nope. Love it. | 3/12/2026 11:22 AM |

| 18 | Kind of boring. These looks like something they would put up in Fitchburg :/ | 3/12/2026 11:19 AM |
| 19 | I feel as though the outer pathway is a little overbearing of the artistic addon. A shortening of the width might make the side paths appeal more as an immediate idea. But otherwise more agricultural adons might help the scene breath out more from being a plain. | 3/12/2026 11:18 AM |

| 49 | People won't appreciate it. | 2/16/2026 4:53 PM |
| 50 | Money Concerns Don't spend a dime on it. If the money has to be spent on this project, plant more trees. If it doesn't, return it to the general fund. | 2/16/2026 12:06 PM |
| 51 | Hire a new artist/designer | 2/16/2026 11:19 AM |
| 52 | I question the need for lights in this natural area at all. This facility only keeps daytime hours. The need for lights seems to counterbalance the desire to be one with nature. | 2/16/2026 9:16 AM |
| 53 | My question would be about longevity. Will a piece of metal that shape last in the long run? | 2/16/2026 8:16 AM |

| 61 | Money Concerns We never run out of ways to waste money here. | 2/14/2026 8:10 AM |
| 62 | No need for art at a maintenance facility. In fact is a safety concern to have random people wandering around the site. They will certainly wander over to look at trucks etc. This is a burden to workers to have to watch out for them. | 2/14/2026 7:37 AM |
| 63 | Money Concerns Save your money | 2/13/2026 4:49 PM |
| 64 | My only concern is if there is only external lighting shining on the aluminum version of the sculptures. I think that would make them look far less unique | 2/13/2026 9:42 AM |
| 65 | The site plan feels a bit repetitive, it seems like five of the same statues. I wish there was a central piece that was different somehow. | 2/13/2026 6:42 AM |
| 66 | I'm concerned this site will have any visitors. It seems odd to have a short path and art exhibit adjacent to a municipal work site. | 2/13/2026 6:35 AM |
| 67 | It would be nice to see how the action of this piece of art touching the surface/surroundings is reflected in the planting and | 2/12/2026 4:54 PM |

materials choices of the site. Or how it connects to the larger site as a whole. It would be nice to see the "birds" in a more naturalistic color.

| 68 | It will be littered with neighbors dog poo. It's a stretch to say it represents anything about the public work that is being carried out | 2/12/2026 4:49 PM |
| 69 | Money Concerns I think the City should not commission works of art after the citizens voted on a large spending increase to improve the infrastructure. Our City is expanding rapidly and our aging infrastructure needs all the financial help it can get, and spending this hard earned money on art is a waste of tax payers' dollars.No one visits city building to see art, especially operations centers. | 2/12/2026 6:38 AM |

| 1 | It seems like every other "modern art" that someone puts up somewhere. I'd call it "standard art". Meaning its just filler like everything else everywhere else where people want to stick something that "might look interesting". | 3/12/2026 11:48 AM |

| 4 | Money Concerns Why is this an acceptable use to funds. Hundreds of thousands of dollars for artistic benches at a dump is ridiculous | 3/12/2026 11:46 AM |
| 5 | These appear to be photos justified as all-inclusive works but, I reality, are aeria photos without representation | 3/12/2026 11:45 AM |

| 8 | this site is very cut off from the actual community around it and people currently only visit in their cars to drop off yard waste, etc. Hopefully, there will be some connection to the surrounding neighborhoods with the new plan | 3/12/2026 11:34 AM |

| 10 | Can't tell where this art installation is placed on the property. if it is on the side with prairie walking paths, it would be a cool integration with nature and the building, and would fit well. If so I think a color other than blue would be better, fitting in with the color of birds that feed over prairies rather than symbolizing water. If these aren't placed on the usable side of the property i.e. facing the roads, buildings, or retention pond, I think these will just be parking lot decorations. | 3/12/2026 11:27 AM |
| 11 | Expecting anyone besides immediate residents of the area to "visit" this is deluded. | 3/12/2026 11:25 AM |
| 12 | Why would I go to walk or sit at a recycling center park? There's no shade, no pollinator prairie to walk through, just more grass and cement. | 3/12/2026 11:24 AM |
| 13 | Thank you for seeking feedback. Love the project. | 3/12/2026 11:22 AM |
| 14 | Again, talk to Ho-Chunk leadership about how you can reflect their culture and honoring the land this building resides on. | 3/12/2026 11:21 AM |
| 15 | Money Concerns I hope the City isn't paying money for these sculptures. If the City requested donated art, we could surely find something more interesting for the community. | 3/12/2026 11:19 AM | recycle drop off site. The art is lovely but gimmie a break and cut taxes or use the tax money more wisely. plow more streets. pick up more leaves. take better care of citizens money-fewer staffers in mayor's office, police oversight, fewer geniuses who cannot functionally design a new grocery store or plan bus recharge sites. Perhaps use the money for a future train station that will not worsen traffic snarls near Monona Terrace and John Nolan.

| 47 | Money Concerns I don't work for the city but have common sense. There is a place for public art but it is not at a maintenance facility. Focus on making the maintenance facility functional for work needs there and leave it at that. | 2/14/2026 7:37 AM |

| 52 | Money Concerns This is really a waste. It exemplifies an out of touch bureaucracy in a way that will enable vilification of Madison by reactionaries. As if we need to give them one more example, | 2/12/2026 9:01 AM |

| 55 | If anyone will end up reading this I dont know, but If you really want to celebrate nature dont build anything, in order for these materials to be harvested for this project some distant land had to be mined and that area ruined, this is exporting destruction, plant some plants or something instead, dont dig up the earth and build something nobody benefits from. I hope you have a good day | 2/11/2026 3:40 PM |

| 60 | Why is an art installation for Madison being situated in Verona? Why is an art installation being proposed in a place where almost no one will see or visit it? Is this really the best use of city time or resources? | 2/10/2026 2:35 PM |
| 61 | No | 2/10/2026 2:11 PM |
| 62 | Money Concerns You plan on using tax payers dollars on art with all the issues this city has? How about fix the roads? Or change the filters in the pumping stations more often? How about spend the money on police officers so our crime on the east side of town is not so high? How about sending counselors, veterans administration, police, officers, homeless shelter representatives to accompany one another to talk to the individuals that are homeless and find them a place to live to help them become a law, abiding tax pain, citizen. Versus living on the streets or squatting. Art is nice, but it's not a necessity and there are plenty of those to address priorities people. You got them all messed up | 2/10/2026 1:25 PM |
