PROJECT OVERVIEW

Bucky on Parade is a public art event that will bring over 100 life-sized Bucky Badger statues to the streets of Madison and Dane County. Modeled after popular public art events including Madison's "Cow Parade" (2006) and "Herky on Parade" (2004 and 2014) in Iowa City, Bucky on Parade will feature Bucky Badger statues transformed into works of arts by local and regional artists. These statues will be on display throughout downtown Madison, the University of Wisconsin campus and beyond throughout the summer of 2018. Event proceeds will support Garding Against Cancer, the Madison Area Sports Commission and other community charities.

PROJECT OBJECTIVES

- Design a season-long free event to be enjoyed by Madison area residents, UW students, and visitors
- Create a unique fundraising event for worthy benefactors—Garding Against Cancer, Madison Area Sports Commission and other local charities
- Design an event which reflects the positive "Town and Gown" relationship between UW and the Madison community

PROJECT PARTNERS

- Project Manager, Organizer and Oversight: Madison Area Sports Commission
- Project Partners: University of Wisconsin (Chancellor's Office), Wisconsin Foundation & Alumni Association, UW Athletics, Garding Against Cancer, and Greater Madison Convention & Visitors Bureau
