Hi,

I'm writing to support both the partial closure of Sherman Avenue from Brearly St. to Baldwin Avenue, as was done last year, and the "20 is plenty" program to reduce speed limits in the neighborhood. As you probably are aware, Sherman Avenue gets a lot of pedestrian traffic, both because it is a pleasant neighborhood, and because it runs between Giddings Park and Tenney Park. Consequently, there is a lot of pedestrian traffic in the street itself, when groups going in different directions on the sidewalk are about to meet. Both programs would improve safety for the pedestrians who use Sherman Avenue.

Thanks,
