To the Transit and Parking Commission
City of Madison
Madison, Wisconsin

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of the Metro Transit System as of and for the year ended December 31, 2012, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered its internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinions on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of its internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of its internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and, therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. We did not identify any deficiencies in Metro Transit System's internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses.

As certain processes are combined with the municipality those systems were reviewed and control deficiencies, if any, reported as part of the municipality's overall audit. These include payroll, special assessments, information technology, and risk assessment. A separate Report on Internal Control will be issued to the Common Council. The information contained in that report is not included with this report.

This communication is intended solely for the information and use of management, those charged with governance, and others within the organization and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

As part of our audit of your financial statements, we are providing communications to you throughout the audit process. Auditing requirements provide for two-way communication and are important in assisting the auditor and you with more information relevant to the audit.

As this past audit is concluded, we use what we have learned to begin the planning process for next year's audit. It is important that you understand the following points about the scope and timing of our next audit:

- a. We address the significant risks of material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, through our detailed audit procedures.
- b. We will obtain an understanding of the five components of internal control sufficient to assess the risk of material misstatement of the financial statements or material noncompliance related to federal and state awards whether due to error or fraud, and to design the nature, timing, and extent of further audit procedures. We will obtain a sufficient understanding by performing risk assessment procedures to evaluate the design of controls relevant to an audit of financial statements and to determine whether they have been implemented. We will use such knowledge to:
  - > Identify types of potential misstatements or noncompliance.
  - > Consider factors that affect the risks of material misstatement or material noncompliance.
  - > Design tests of controls, when applicable, and substantive procedures.

Our audit will be performed in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards, Government Auditing Standards, OMB Circular A-133, and the State Single Audit Guidelines.

We will not express an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting or compliance with laws, regulations, and provisions of contracts or grant programs. For audits done in accordance with OMB Circular A-133, the State Single Audit Guidelines, and Government Auditing Standards, our report will include a paragraph that states that the purpose of the report is solely to describe (a) the scope of testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the result of that testing and not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting or on compliance, (b) the scope of testing internal control over compliance and the result of that testing and to provide an opinion on compliance but not to provide an opinion on the effectiveness of internal control over compliance and, (c) that the report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards in considering internal control over financial reporting and compliance. The paragraph will also state that the report is not suitable for any other purpose.

- c. The concept of materiality recognizes that some matters, either individually or in the aggregate, are important for fair presentation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles or for reporting material noncompliance while other matters are not important. In performing the audit, we are concerned with matters that, either individually or in the aggregate, could be material to the financial statements or to the entity's federal and state awards. Our responsibility is to plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance that material misstatements or material noncompliance, whether caused by errors or fraud, are detected.

---

We are very interested in your views regarding certain matters. Those matters are listed here:

- a. We typically will communicate with your top level of management unless you tell us otherwise.
- b. We understand that the Transit and Parking Commission has the responsibility to oversee the strategic direction of your organization, as well as the overall accountability of the entity. Management has the responsibility for achieving the objectives of the entity.
- c. We need to know your views about your organization's objectives and strategies, and the related business risks that may result in material misstatements.
- d. Which matters do you consider warrant particular attention during the audit, and are there any areas where you request additional procedures to be undertaken?
- e. Have you had any significant communications with regulators or grantor agencies?
- f. Are there other matters that you believe are relevant to the audit of the financial statements or the federal or state awards?

Also, is there anything that we need to know about the attitudes, awareness, and actions of transit concerning:

- a. The transit's internal control and its importance in the entity, including how those charged with governance oversee the effectiveness of internal control?
- b. The detection or the possibility of fraud?

We also need to know if you have taken actions in response to developments in financial reporting, laws, accounting standards, governance practices, or other related matters, or in response to previous communications with us.

With regard to the timing of our audit, here is some general information. Our final financial fieldwork is scheduled during the spring to best coincide with your readiness and report deadlines. After fieldwork, we wrap up our financial audit procedures at our office and issue drafts of our report for your review. Final copies of our report and other communications are issued after approval by your staff. This is typically 6-12 weeks after final fieldwork, but may vary depending on a number of factors. We typically perform the single audit fieldwork for transit related grants concurrently with the financial audit. The single audit reporting is combined with the City wide report and is issued by September 30th.

Keep in mind that while this communication may assist us with planning the scope and timing of the audit, it does not change the auditor's sole responsibility to determine the overall audit strategy and the audit plan, including the nature, timing, and extent of procedures necessary to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence.

We realize that you may have questions on what this all means, or wish to provide other feedback. We welcome the opportunity to hear from you.

COMMUNICATION OF OTHER CONTROL DEFICIENCIES, RECOMMENDATIONS, AND INFORMATIONAL POINTS TO MANAGEMENT THAT ARE NOT MATERIAL WEAKNESSES OR SIGNIFICANT DEFICIENCIES

OBSERVATIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

REVIEW OF REPORTING REQUIREMENTS AND DEADLINES

During the testing for single audit requirements, it was noted that the state quarterly reports were not filed by the deadline to the Wisconsin Department of Transportation for the first quarter of 2012. In addition, we noted that the Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) report covering the period October 1, 2011 through March 31, 2012 was also not filed on time. We did note that Metro received appropriate approval for late filing of the second quarter report and that the third and fourth quarter state reports and the DBE report due on December 1st were filed on time. In order to ensure Metro files all reports timely in the future, we recommend that management review all reporting requirements and deadlines and set up a schedule for when these need to be prepared in order to meet the applicable deadlines.

TIMELY PREPARATION OF INVOICES FOR SERVICES

At year end, accounts receivable contained seven months of outstanding bills from both U.W. Madison and Associated Students of Madison, up from four months outstanding in 2011. Per a review of invoices sent, the June through October bills were sent in December 2012, while the November and December bills were sent in February of 2013. The delayed billing leads to delayed cash collection, and therefore a lag from when Metro provided the service and when it receives the related revenues. We recommend Metro implement more timely billing in order to improve overall cash flows.

PRIOR YEAR OBSERVATIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

JOURNAL ENTRY REVIEW

Currently, Metro does not have a formally documented journal entry review process. Often times journal entries are prepared, and entered by the same employee. We understand that the detailed review of monthly financial statements and budget to actual reports would identify and correct most errors; however we still recommend a formalized process for the independent review of journal entries by someone other than the preparer be developed and implemented.

Status 12/31/12

During 2012, management did begin reviewing journal entries; however, with change in staff toward the end of the year, there was not consistent review of journal entries. When vacant positions are filled in the finance department, management will review the responsibilities of each employee and implement a review process for journal entries.

DOCUMENTATION OF YEAR END ACCOUNTING PROCEDURES

Over the past several years Metro has experienced several transitions within the financial department staff. During the 2008 audit, management posed valid questions related to the accounting for certain unique annual transactions such as the partner subsidy calculation or the accruals for vacation and sick leave. As these transactions are only calculated at year end, we recommend that management create a system of other information that would be helpful from year to year. These can be used during the year end process and updated annually as needed based on contractual changes or new accounting standards.

Status 12/31/12

Management had planned to do this in 2012, however, due to personnel changes, they were not able to. The intent is for the finance department to document these procedures in 2013.

INFORMATIONAL / PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS UPDATE

GASB STATEMENT NO. 65: ITEMS PREVIOUSLY REPORTED AS ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

Government Accounting Standards Board (GASB) Statement No. 65 – Items Previously Reported as Assets and Liabilities will result in a reclassification of some financial statement line items on the Statement of Net Position and Balance Sheet of governments. The new financial statement categories of deferred outflows of resources and deferred inflows of resources will become more commonly used upon implementation of this standard. In addition to reclassifications to these new categories, the standard will also result in a change in the accounting treatment for certain items, including debt issuance costs. This standard is effective for periods beginning after December 15, 2012, and was intended to complement Statement No. 63 – Financial Reporting of Deferred Outflows of Resources, Deferred Inflows of Resources, and Net Position.

Some of the most significant changes of this standard that will impact many governments include:

- > Debt issuance costs previously amortized will now be expensed in the period incurred
- > Losses on refunding of debt will now be classified as a deferred outflow of resources, and consistent with the change noted previously, the formula for calculating the loss has been adjusted to exclude debt issuance costs (prospectively)
- > Regulatory credits recorded by utilities will now be recorded either as a liability or a deferred inflow of resources, depending on how the credit will be applied in the future
- > The terminology of deferred revenue is no longer permitted to be used. In addition, the items previously recorded as deferred revenue will need to be analyzed to determine if they now will be presented as a deferred inflow of resources or a liability

We are available to discuss these changes and the impact on your financial statements.

GASB STATEMENT NO. 68: ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL REPORTING FOR PENSIONS

The Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) has issued Statement No. 68, which will change the accounting and financial reporting requirements for state and local governments that provide their employees with pensions. This Statement replaces the requirements of GASB Statement Nos. 27 and 50 as they relate to pensions that are provided through pension plans administered as trusts, or equivalent arrangements that meet certain criteria. These changes will affect your financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2015.

This Statement applies specifically to governments that provide their employees with pensions through pension plans in which a government's contributions to the trust used to administer a pension plan are (1) irrevocable, (2) restricted to paying pension benefits, and (3) beyond the reach of creditors.

Under the new standards, in financial statements prepared using the economic resources measurement focus (accrual basis of accounting) a cost-sharing employer is required to recognize its proportionate share of the net pension liability of the Wisconsin Retirement System. The net pension liability is defined as the present value of projected benefit payments to be provided through the pension plan, to current and inactive employees, that is attributed to those employees' past periods of service (total pension liability), less the amount of the pension plan's net position.

The new Statement contains requirements related to the actuarial cost method and certain other assumptions used in the preparation of an actuarial valuation. The Statement also requires that an actuarial valuation of the total pension liability be performed at least every two years, with more frequent valuations encouraged. In addition, this Statement also requires disclosing certain information in the notes to the financial statements, as well as presenting certain required supplementary information (RSI) for the ten most recent fiscal years.

For government employers that provide their employees with a defined contribution pension, the new standards generally carry forward the existing financial reporting requirements.

We are available to further discuss these changes and the impact on your financial statements.

YELLOW BOOK (GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS) REVISIONS

In December 2011, the Government Accountability Office (GAO) released a revision to Generally Accepted Auditing Standards (GAGAS) which is also known as Yellow Book. This was the first revision since July 2007. The changes became effective for years ending December 31, 2012.

One of the most significant modifications of the new standards was the change to the conceptual framework for independence. Previously, the standards were more rules-based with identification of certain non-audit services that were either allowed or prohibited. The new framework provides a means for auditors to assess their independence based on the unique facts and circumstances of the work and the client. However, certain underlying concepts of the standards remain with the revision, including the fact that auditors cannot be part of your internal control system and cannot perform management functions.

Other changes to the revision include updates for new auditing standards, convergence with AICPA and international standards, and the retirement of the supplement containing select questions and answers on independence.

If you have any questions on how the implementations of these revisions impact your audit, we are available to discuss those questions with you.

To the Transit and Parking Commission
City of Madison

Thank you for using Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP as your auditor.

We have completed our audit of the financial statements of Metro Transit System of Madison, Wisconsin for the year ended December 31, 2012, and have issued our report thereon dated June 18, 2013. This letter presents communications required by our professional standards.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY UNDER AUDITING STANDARDS GENERALLY ACCEPTED
IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS, OMB CIRCULAR A-133 AND THE STATE SINGLE AUDIT GUIDELINES

The objective of a financial statement audit is the expression of an opinion on the financial statements. We conducted the audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, Government Auditing Standards, OMB Circular A-133, and the State Single Audit Guidelines. These standards require that we plan and perform our audit to obtain reasonable, rather than absolute, assurance about whether the financial statements prepared by management with your oversight are free of material misstatement, whether caused by error or fraud. Our audit included examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. Our audit does not relieve management or the commission of their responsibilities.

We also considered internal control over compliance with requirements that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal or major state program in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on compliance and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with OMB Circular A-133 and the State Single Audit Guidelines.

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether Metro Transit System's financial statements are free of material misstatement, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grants, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit. Also, in accordance with OMB Circular A-133 and the State Single Audit Guidelines, we examined, on a test basis, evidence about Metro Transit System's compliance with the types of compliance requirements described in the U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-133 Compliance Supplement and the State Single Audit Guidelines applicable to each of its major federal and state programs for the purpose of expressing an opinion on Metro Transit System's compliance with those requirements. While our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion, it does not provide a legal determination on Metro Transit System's compliance with those requirements.

We have issued a separate document which contains the results of our audit procedures to comply with OMB Circular A-133 and the State Single Audit Guidelines.

To the Transit and Parking Commission
City of Madison

OTHER INFORMATION IN DOCUMENTS CONTAINING AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our responsibility does not extend beyond the audited financial statements identified in this report. We do not have any obligation to and have not performed any procedures to corroborate other information contained in client prepared documents, such as official statements related to debt issues.

PLANNED SCOPE AND TIMING OF THE AUDIT

We performed the audit according to the planned scope and timing previously communicated to you in our planning letter dated June 15, 2012.

QUALITATIVE ASPECTS OF THE ENTITY'S SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING PRACTICES

Accounting Policies

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. In accordance with the terms of our engagement letter, we will advise management about the appropriateness of accounting policies and their application. The significant accounting policies used by the Metro Transit System are described in Note 1 to the financial statements. As described in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Metro Transit System changed accounting policies related to deferred outflows of resources, deferred inflows of resources, and net position by adopting Statement of Governmental Accounting Standards (GASB) Statement No. 63, Financial Reporting of Deferred Outflows of Resources, Deferred Inflows of Resources, and Net Position in 2012. We noted no transactions entered into by the Metro Transit System during the year that were both significant and unusual, and of which, under professional standards, we are required to inform you, or transactions for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus.

Accounting Estimates

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. The most sensitive estimates affecting the financial statements were:

- > The estimate of the Other Postemployment Benefits (OPEBs) liability, which is based upon information provided by actuaries contracted with by the City.
- > The estimate of accrued sick leave which is based on a historical usage analysis completed by the City.

We evaluated the key factors and assumptions used to develop all of these estimates in determining that they are reasonable in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Financial Statement Disclosures

The disclosures in the financial statements are neutral, consistent, and clear.

DIFFICULTIES ENCOUNTERED IN PERFORMING THE AUDIT

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing our audit.

To the Transit and Parking Commission
City of Madison

CORRECTED MISSTATEMENTS

Professional standards require us to accumulate all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management.

Management has corrected all such misstatements. In addition, none of the misstatements detected as a result of the audit procedures and corrected by management were material, either individually or in the aggregate, to the financial statements taken as a whole.

DISAGREEMENTS WITH MANAGEMENT

For purposes of this letter, professional standards define a disagreement with management as a matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, concerning a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

CONSULTATIONS WITH OTHER INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the governmental unit's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditors' opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

MANAGEMENT REPRESENTATIONS

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter. This letter follows this required communication.

INDEPENDENCE

We are not aware of any relationships between Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP and the Metro Transit System that, in our professional judgment, may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence.

Relating to our audit of the financial statements of Metro Transit System for the year ended December 31, 2012, Baker Tilly Virchow Krause, LLP hereby confirms that we are, in our professional judgment, independent with respect to the Metro in accordance with the Code of Professional Conduct issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. We provided no services to the Metro other than audit services provided in connection with the audit of the current year's financial statements and nonaudit services which in our judgment do not impair our independence.

- > NTD report certification
- > Adjusting journal entries

None of these nonaudit services constitute an audit under generally accepted auditing standards, including Government Auditing Standards.

To the Transit and Parking Commission
City of Madison

OTHER AUDIT FINDINGS OR ISSUES

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, with management each year prior to retention as the Metro Transit System's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

OTHER MATTERS

With respect to the supplementary information accompanying the financial statements, we made certain inquiries of management and evaluated the form, content, and methods of preparing the information to determine that the information complies with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, the method of preparing it has not changed from the prior period, and the information is appropriate and complete in relation to our audit of the financial statements. We compared and reconciled the supplementary information to the underlying accounting records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves.

This information is intended solely for the use of Transit and Parking Commission and management and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

We welcome the opportunity to discuss the information included in this letter and any other matters. Thank you for allowing us to serve you.
