Expanding the Fringe Festival

Complete the Overture Forever Campaign

$3M budgeted for capital projects with an emphasis on sustainability and increasing efficiencies

2026 ROOM TAX REQUEST: $2,365,000

- $1M for capital reinvestment
- $800,000 employee wages and benefits
- $200,000 AFSCME and IATSE union wages
- $215,000 education and engagement programs
- $215,000 utilities

IMPACT OF DECREASED ROOM TAX FUNDING

Hamper the development of the Fringe Festival to expand into the city to showcase local artists and attract tourism.

Limit capital reinvestment in building and equipment, increasing risk of a failure that could limit performances, events.

Potentially reduce capacity to provide as much free/low-cost programming.
