

Agenda Item #: 3
Project Title: Buildings Proposed for Demolition
Legistar File ID #: 75031
Prepared By: Heather Bailey, Preservation Planner
Members: Present: Ald. Amani Latimer Burris, Molly Harris, Richard Arnesen, Katie Kaliszewski, and David McLean
Excused: Edna Ely-Ledesma and Maurice Taylor

Summary

Ekberg shared information on the property at 1002 Erin Street and stated that staff recommended a finding of historic value related to the vernacular context of Madison’s build environment, but the building itself is not historically, architecturally, or culturally significant.

Kaliszewski asked staff what the siding now one. Staff clarified it is still wood lap siding.

Kaliszewski asked staff if PC will have the same notes. Staff clarified that yes, it is in our report and also their notes.

Morrison stated they agree it is a B and that PC could refer to thier own notes.

Commission finds it has historic value to vernacular context 1897 Victorian house with high historic integrity, but the building itself is not historically, architecturally, or culturally significant.. – Motion by Morrison, Arneson

Action

A motion was made by Morrison, seconded by Arnesen, to Approve recommending to the Plan Commission that the buildings at 1002 Erin Street has historic value related to the vernacular context as a 1897 Victorian house high historic integrity, but the building itself is not historically, architecturally or culturally significant. The motion passed by voice vote/other.