Thanks. Since the applicant sells no motor fuel (at least I hope he doesn't!), I would appreciate that a condition be added that limits sales to beer and wine only.

Good afternoon,

Definitely. It's most common in businesses that sell motor fuel, but wish to sell wine, because there is an ordinance that prohibits the sale of spirits where motor fuel is sold.

Sincerely,

Thanks Jim. I've spoken with the applicant and he is only interested in adding wine sales, not liquor. Is it common for ALRC to add a condition of approval that limits a Class A liquor license to beer and wine only? If so, in a recent phone conversation the applicant agreed that such a condition would be fine. The Tenney-Lapham Neighborhood Association is aware of this request and has not registered any opposition and I am supportive if it is beer and wine only.
