

Flock to State

Flock to State will be an experimental pedestrian mall on the lower end of State Street, from Gorham Street to Hawthorne Court. The project includes seating and street murals. The plan being branded with the City's official bird, the pink lawn Flamingo.

Project #1: Stencils:

- Hire artist to design an array of stencils that could be painted at the ends of each block by the community
- Maeve Makeilski- To design 12 stencils based upon her utility box submission:

- Picnic basket
- Ice cream cone
- Thai pavilion
- Toothy Mushroom Sid Boyem guy
- Ice Statue of Liberty
- 608
- Peace hands
- Wiener mobile
- Saturn
- Bloody Mary
- Sailboat

- Heart or triangle with eye
- Daisy
- Dead fish
- Musical note

Project #2: Three signature flamingo artist street paintings in the middle of block 400, 500 & 600:

- Pick five artists from the Utility Box Program to make a proposed signature flamingo medallions in the middle of each block.

Taylor McAda

Sharon Bjyrd

Jessica Gutierrez

Rahul Kamuth

Aeryn Streiffer (Art Working)

- MAC will review and vote on the selection.