Community Comments Invited on Proposals for Judge Doyle Square

Monday, November 11, 2013

Room 300 - Madison Municipal Building

215 Martin Luther King Jr. Boulevard

6:00 pm

The City of Madison has requested proposals to undertake a significant mixed use development comprised of commercial, hotel, residential, retail and restaurant uses combined with bicycle and public parking facilities on a prominent two-block site in the heart of the City's central business district between the Capitol Square and the Monona Terrace Community and Convention Center. Known as Judge Doyle Square, the site includes the Madison Municipal Building block and the City-owned Government East parking facility, which will be replaced as part of the project.

The Judge Doyle Square Committee, a citizen committee created by the City Council to oversee the development process, is reviewing the two proposals received to develop the project. Public comments on the Judge Doyle Square project are invited at the committee meeting on November 11, 2013. Background information on the project and detailed information on the two proposals are available at <http://www.cityofmadison.com/planning/judgedoylesquare/>.
