Assistant Chief Patterson went over the Madison Police Department's Annual and Accountability Report. At the June PSRC committee it was decided there would be a discussion on thoughts on the Accountability report. The idea was for committee members to take a little time to look over the report and to bring any questions/discussion to the June meeting. There was a request to have Chief Koval's quarterly report sent to the PSRC members. The committee also inquired about the department's Standard Operating Procedures and requested the committee is also informed when there are updates/changes.

REPORTS

2. 55657 Report from the Madison Police Department
