Subject: Suggested architecture styles for Madison

Hi Jessica,

I hope this email finds you well. I'm in Toronto this week for a vacation and happened to see many cool and interesting-looking buildings throughout the city.

With that, I got some inspiration for what some future buildings in Madison could look like (even though these styles are much older). I wondered what you maybe thought and how the city could work with developers to incorporate more older architectural styles into our cityscape? I'm happy to talk about my thoughts some more of course.

Thanks,

Jack
