

MOST Decision Points DRAFT 1/29/2014

January –April 2014

May –August 2014

September –December 2014

Action Team

Data and Management Information (MI) Systems

Family & Youth Engagement

Quality Support & Improvement

- MOST website
- Research 5 models similar to Madison or of interest.

- Determine the data points for collection
- Collect data
- Research MI systems

- Structure for Family & Youth Engagement
- Determine logistics for activities that support family and youth engagement e.g location

- Research quality standards within the field of OST programming
- Develop common understanding of what a “quality OST program” is
- Determine dosage for scope

- Determine scope of initiative
- Explore backbone organization structures
- Analyze current programmatic gaps in service

- GIS Map of OST programs
- Analyze current programmatic gaps in service
- Develop online resource map

- Implement methods for family and youth engagement
- Analyze current programmatic gaps in service

- Analyze current programmatic gaps in service
- Work with F & Y Engage. workgroup on quality engagement & market survey

- Logic Model
- Funding
- Business plan
- Process evaluation

- Recommendation of MI systems
- Process evaluation

- Design market survey with data workgroup
- Process evaluation

- Define characteristics of quality Madison OST programs
- Process evaluation

