For June 9ths agenda, I'd wish to add to create a restriction to isolate the "Juneteenth" holiday's terminology to a one-day term, June 17th, perhaps.

I can't accept that a custom of only some, of one race-color's decisions, to name this holiday in such a way that it's grammar is impossible to digest and take seriously hasn't been addressed yet. In fact, the more of a person's capacity that their work and hobby-reading uses, the harder it is to adjust to this term. I believe it would help cultural relations to enforce this change, for everyone's better time during the holiday and to ease what has become the typical strain of covid.
