Project Description (400 words or less)

This project is aimed to be the embodiment of freedom and boundless youth. We can be whatever we want under that helmet with no judgement. We convey these messages using sharp colors with vibrancy similar to sunsets. We are using a wide canvas to represent the encompassing range of associated emotions. In order to accomplish our goal we will need enough tempera paint to cover the medium we are going to use (dimensions unknown) which will be the storefront window of Sofi's Spot in Roundhouse. We aim to ensure that our project is highly visible to reinforce the message that has been lost through out the process of growing up.
