Member Announcements, Communications or Business Items

Chair Gnam thanked the members of the Plan Commission for their flexibility with the cancellation of the June 11, 2026 special meeting. The items scheduled for that meeting will be presented to the Commission at upcoming meetings.

Ald. Figueroa Cole noted that she would be unable to attend the September 8, 2026 special meeting.

Secretary's Report

Planning Division Director Meagan Tuttle summarized the recent Common Council actions and upcoming matters for the Plan Commission. She also thanked the Commission for their flexibility on the cancellation of the June 11, 2026 special meeting.

As part of her overview of recent Common Council actions, Director Tuttle noted that Nicole Solheim and Patrick Heck were re-appointed as citizen members of the Plan Commission, and that Scott Chehak had been re-appointed as the Madison Metropolitan School District representative/ ex-officio member of the Commission.

She also noted that June 29 would be Commission member Chris McCahill's last meeting with the body, and that he was stepping away from the Plan Commission so that he could focus on his work as a citizen member of the Transportation Commission. Ald. Field has been appointed to serve as the Plan Commission representative to the Transportation Commission.

Also, during the discussion of Items 15 and 16 (Southeast Area Plan), Director Tuttle let the Plan Commission know that Rebecca Cnare had recently been promoted to the position of principal planner in the Planning Division's Neighborhood Planning, Preservation and Design Section, filling the position previously held by Bill Fruhling, who retired earlier this year.
