MADISON FOOD POLICY COUNCIL

*Consider: Who benefits? Who is burdened?
Who does not have a voice at the table?
How can policymakers mitigate unintended consequences?*

The FARES work group met for the first time as a whole to begin discussing potential projects. A discussion about specific projects led the group to identify that all possible projects listed in the WG charter can be separated into two main themes. We decided to base our project teams off of these themes. One will focus on food purchase and availability while the other will focus on transportation and distribution.

Along with coming up with specific projects, each project team is tasked with identifying their connections and any community based organizations that could help with data gathering which will help inform the necessity and success of proposed projects.
