

Conversation Starter:

Below is a list of issues Parks has encountered in recent years (Existing policies and guidelines provide a varying amount of support for these issues)

- Neighbors wish to rename a park due to dislike of name
- Neighbors wish to rename a park due to wish to honor someone
- Parks acquires new parcel and it needs a name
- Parks wishes to name a sub area of a park after a person who has contributed much to the park system
- Citizens requests Parks to name a sub area of a park or a feature of the park after a person who contributed much to the park or the park system
- A family wishes to purchase something for a park and place it in the park with a plaque to their loved one
- Group of enthusiasts for a specific thing raise money and parks builds said item
- Single donor wishes to give a large amount to a specific project
- Single donor wishing to give small amount to a project they care about
- Corporation wishes to make a donation to fund a feature of a park
- Local foundations give money for amenity in park, such as splash pads, pickleball court or new inclusive playgrounds