GENERAL RULES FOR CLASSES IN MADISON PARKS

- 1) There can be no vending (money exchanging hands in the park). Classes must be prepaid or donations only.
- 2) There can be no temporary structure permits issued for classes in Madison Parks.
- 3) No equipment or storage boxes are allowed in Madison Parks when the class is not in session or overnight.
- 4) The class must utilize open space in the park. Prior approval from the Parks Division is required to use shelters or athletic fields. There may be additional fees for these uses.
- 5) The area used for the class must be cleaned and returned to its original condition.
- 6) Classes may not interfere with any shelter reservations, athletic field/court reservations or permitted special events.
- 7) Signs pertaining to the class are only allowed during the class. Signs cannot remain in the park when class is not in session.
- 8) A small speaker may be used for amplification during the class. The amplification must be background level and not loud enough to impact other park users, reservations, or the surrounding neighborhood.
