A white, single-story building with a gabled roof. A satellite dish is mounted on the roof. To the left of the main building is a smaller white structure with a door and a window. A satellite dish is also visible on the roof of this smaller structure. The building is surrounded by snow.

A black SUV parked in a snowy lot. The vehicle has "EXCEL" and "SILVERADO" branding on its side. The rear hatch is open. The ground is covered in snow with some tire tracks.

A chain-link fence running across the right side of the image. Behind the fence, there are trees and another vehicle. The ground is covered in snow.

A white, rectangular object, possibly a dumpster or a storage container, partially visible on the left side of the image. It is surrounded by snow.
