The Center for Black Excellence and Culture is expected to be constructed in 2024/2025 and will consist of a three story, approximately 35,000 square foot building located at 655 W Badger Road, Madison.

This cultural center will have two multi-purpose gathering spaces capable of hosting performing arts events including live performances, theater, film festivals, and a variety of other assembly eventsin including lectures, weddings and hosting school field trip events. The larger of these two rooms (Space A, noted below) will be equipped with a retractable platform system with 240 integral theater seats. The smaller room (Space B) will accommodate up to 100 people with loose seating. A large Garden Atrium (Space C) will be situated between these venues providing for casual gathering before and after events. A catering kitchen (Space D) will also be adjacent to these spaces.

Approximately 1350 square feet will be dedicated to visual arts production rooms (Spaces E) and another 650 sf for gallery/exhibition space (Space F).

Six independent, classroom-type spaces (Spaces G) will be available for meetings and youth functions with one equipped as a multi-media center. A small recording studio (Space H), with control room and sound booth will be provided.

Adjacent to the main entry will be a reception desk, merchandise store (Space I) and a large commons (Space J) for gatherings and small events.

Limited access will be provided to the upper floor for those attending the Center's office suite (Space K) and board room (Space L), a large private lounge with an outdoor roof-top patio (Space M), approximately 2700 sf of co-working space (Space N), and a Women's Center (Space O).
