

Dear ALRC Members,

I cautiously support the new license for Little Manhattan at 6718 Odana Road.

Longtime ALRC members will remember this address as the location of a series of problematic establishments. I am hopeful that this new business can break that cycle and be successful. While I would prefer to see a full restaurant, rather than a pool hall created here, I believe that limiting to beer and wine only, with no entertainment license, is a good first step to ensuring safety. I have spoken with MPD West District Captain Lengfeld and he agrees.

Thank you all for your service to our city.

Mark C.
