

Dane County Food Council Report

Dane County Food Council – A sub-committee (including Mark representing the Madison Food Policy Council) is currently planning the 2014 Food Summit scheduled for Oct. 24th. The theme for the day is Be a part of the solution: developing action strategies for addressing gaps in the local food system. A budget sub-committee has been formed to review and recommend budget items for the 2015 County budget.