|                                       |                                       |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   | USDA               | Time        |                          |                               |                     |
|---------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------|---|---------------------|--------------------------------|---------------|------------------|---|--------------------|-------------|--------------------------|-------------------------------|---------------------|
|                                       |                                       | PlantCategory | Special requirements  |                     | Description of                 |               |                  |   | Hardiness          | to          |                          |                               |                     |
| Species                               | Variety Name                          | ou.ogo.y          |   | Size of plant       | fruit                          | until fruit   | Ripe Period      |   | Zone               | plant       | How to plant             | Sources                       |                     |
| Prupus pigra                          | Canada plum                           | Native            |   | 20-30' tall & wide  | red                            |               | August Cont      | (one is bush for dry soil, other is tree for wetter soil)   | 70nos 2 6          |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Prunus nigra                          |                                       |                   |   |                     |                                |               | August-Sept.     | Upright tree. attacked by fungus Taphrina. Thorns.  Bush for dryier sites. Suckers. Some thorns. Vulnerable | Zones 2-6          |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Prunus americana                      | Wild plum 'Toka'                      | Native            | consider siting carefully, some rick of   | 15-25' tall & wide  | red                            |               | August-Sept.     | to disases.   | Zones 3-8          |             | seed ok                  |                               |                     |
| Prunus domestica                      | 'Dwarf Mt. Royal'                     | Non-Native        | consider siting carefully - some risk of invasiveness   | 8-10'               | Purple                         | 2-3 years     |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Prunus salicina                       | 'Superior'                            | Non-Native        | could be marginally hardy   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
|                                       |                                       |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Peaches                               | Madiaan                               | Non notive        |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Prunus persica                        | 'Madison''Redhaven'               | Non-native        |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Pears                                 |                                       |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Pyrus communis                        | Karl's Favorite                       | Non-native        |   | 10-12' tall (dwarf) | yellow large                   | 3 years       | September        | Disease resistant. Productive. Plant 2 for pollination  | Zones 4-7          | spring      | 12' apart                | Jungs                         |                     |
| Pyrus communis                        | Ubileen Pear                          | Non-native        | look for fire-blight resistant varieties  | 12-15' tall (dwarf) | yellow buttery                 | 2-4 years     | July             | Disease resistant. Early. Plant 2 for pollination   | Zones 4-7          | spring      | 12' apart                | Jungs                         |                     |
| Pyrus communis                        | unknown cultivar                      | Non-native        | available for grafting from tree on Division St   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Mulberry                              |                                       |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Morus rubra                           | 'Illinois Everbearing'                | Native            |   | 20-30' tall         |                                | 2-3 years     |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Kiwi                                  |                                       |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Actinidia arguta                      | Hardy Kiwi 'Anna'                     | Non-native        | needs care to establish, sturdy metal fence ortrellis, and frequent pruning, cultivated andoccasionally escapes | Vigorous vines      | small hairless                 | 7-10 years    | September        | Pest free, need male & female for pollination, hardy to   | 2 Zones 4-9        | spring      | 8' apart on strong fence | Miller; Edible Landscaping; L | J.S. Forest Service |
| Juneberries / Serviceberries          |                                       |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Amelanchier alnifolia                 | 'Regent'                              | Native            | needs moist soil in a protected area  | 4-6' tall           | like a blueberry               |               | June             | Trouble-free  | Zones 4-8          |             |                          | Edible Landscaping; OIKOS     |                     |
| Amelanchier grandiflora               | 'Princess Diana',                     | Native            | needs moist soil in a protected area  | 12-15' bush         | large, purple                  |               | June             | Pest & disease Resistant  | Zones 3b-8a        |             |                          | Edible Landscaping; OIKOS     |                     |
| Amelanchier x grandiflora             | Apple Serviceberry                    | Native            | needs moist soil in a protected area  | to 40 ft.           | purple/black fruit             | ts 5-8 years  |                  | hardy to -30F.  |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Amelanchier laevis                    | 'Smokey', 'Regent', & many others     | Native            | needs moist soil in a protected area  | 6-9 ' tall          |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          | OIKOS                         |                     |
| Cherries                              |                                       |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Prunus avium (sweet)                  | 'White Gold'                          | Non-native        | consider siting carefully - some risk of invasiveness but in commercial cultivation in WI                               | Std or semi-dwarf   | heavy yield                    | 5 years       | mid July         | self fertile, pest & disease resistant.   | Zones 5-7          | spring      | 20-25' for std size      | Jungs; Edible Landscaping     | www.eat-it.com      |
| Prunus serotina x 'Montmorency'       | 'Montmorency'                         | Native            | invasiveness but in commercial cultivation in Wi  |                     |                                |               | -                | ·   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Prunus serotina                       | Black Cherry                          | Native            |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Prunus serotina x 'North Star Dwarf'  | 'Northstar Dwarf'                     | Native            |   | <10' tall           | sour Morello                   | 3-4 years     | early July       | self fertile, good pest & drought resistance  | Zones 4-6 or 4-8   | 8 spring    |                          | Jungs; Edible Landscaping; I  | Miller              |
| P. pensylvanica, P. maritima          | Also pin cherry, beach plum           | Native            |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Prunus pumila                         | Sand cherry                           | Native            |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Nuts                                  |                                       |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Corylus americana                     | American Hazelnut                     | Native            |   | 15' tall            |                                | 2-3 years, or | nly until 10 yrs | Disease resistant. Plant 2 for pollination. Can mulch und   | le OIKOS says hard | dy to -35F  |                          | Jungs. Wild strains: OIKOS;   |                     |
| Carya spp.                            | Hickory                               | Native            |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   | Cultivated strain  | s for Zones | 5-8: Edible Landscaping  | Jungs, OIKOS                  |                     |
| Carya illinoensis                     | Northern Hardy Pecan                  | Native            | could be marginally hardy   | 60-80' tall         | small, sweet, hig              | h oil         | 120-140 days     | Mostly disease resistant. Plant 2 for pollination. High value wood.   | Zones 4-9          | spring      |                          | Miller, OIKOS                 |                     |
| Currants                              |                                       |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
|                                       | 'Red Lake', Rovada red,               |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
|                                       | Pink champagne, Cornet                |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Ribes alpina                          | Consort, Crusader, Red                |                   | should be white pine blight resistant   | 3' high 4' wide     | productive red co              | urrant        | July- August     | ok in shade.  |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
|                                       | Lake, Jumbo, Cherry, an White Current | d                 |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Ribes americanum                      | American black currant                | Native            | should be white pine blight resistant   | 3-4 ft.             |                                |               | August           | dried, jelly  |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
|                                       | Many varieties                        | 1                 |   | 12                  |                                |               | , agast          | , )~,   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Raspberries Blackberries              | Many varieties                        |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   | 1                  |             |                          |                               |                     |
|                                       | 'Northland', 'Chippewa',              |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Blueberries                           | other varieties                       |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  | Need acidic soil for blueberries  |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Other Fruits                          |                                       |                   |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Aronia melanocarpa 'Nero'             | Black Chokeberry 'Nero'               | Native            |   | 4-8' bush           | like a blueberry of elderberry | 1 year        |                  | native, astringent so good in juice, jam, baked goods   | Zones 3-4          |             |                          | Oikos TreeCrops           |                     |
| Sambucus canadensis                   | Elderberry                            | Native            |   | 8' tall and wide    | 12'                            | 1 year        |                  | will spreadgrows quickly.   | Zone 3             |             |                          | 5. 5p5                        |                     |
| Asimina triloba                       | Pawpaw                                | Native            |   | up to 20 ft.        | 1/2 lb each. Bana              | an 4-8 years  |                  | pest free, deer resistant. Plant 2 for pollination. Rare midwest native. Tolerates poor soil.               | Zones 4-8          | spring      | 15' apart                | Miller, OIKOS                 |                     |
| Rosa blanda, R. carolina, R. setigera | Native roses                          | Native            |   | 10 20 11            | ., z .o odon. Dani             |               | 30pt 30t.        | poor oom  |                    | Sp. mg      | apart                    |                               |                     |
| Shepherdia argentia                   | Buffaloberry                          | Native            |   | up to 15 ft.        | yellow berries                 |               |                  | jelly   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |
| Cydonia oblonga (tree)                | Quince                                | Non-native        |   |                     |                                |               |                  |   |                    |             |                          |                               |                     |