

MAYORAL PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, David L. Wallner has served the citizens of the City of Madison in numerous ways, including as alderperson, high school teacher, member and President of the Board of Parks Commissioners, and member and Vice President of the Madison Public Library Board; and
- WHEREAS, Dave began his service to the Library Board in 1999 and was always an engaged and expressive member of Board meetings, asking detailed questions and contributing insightful and frequently witty thoughts and ideas about the topics under consideration; and
- WHEREAS, Dave would regularly supply Library Board meetings with peanut M&Ms to sustain us through occasionally prolonged discussions; and
- WHEREAS, Dave's friendly and engaging manner extended outside of the confines of the Board meeting, as he demonstrated an interest in making connections with fellow board members as individuals; and
- WHEREAS, Dave was a tireless and vocal advocate of the Central Library project and Dave's long tenure on the Library Board demonstrates his commitment not only to the Central Library project but to all of Madison's public libraries and to the services and resources our libraries provide to the City of Madison and its residents; and
- WHEREAS, Dave, together with his wife Ann Katz, also contribute to the City of Madison and its residents by opening their home as a venue for house parties in which both established and up-and-coming musicians perform to an enthusiastic audience of community members in an intimate setting.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Mayor of the City of Madison, Wisconsin, does hereby recognize all of Dave's accomplishments and contributions to our City, its citizens and the larger community and this proclamation is given in sincere appreciation of that service.
