

A lovable place

Where everyone is walking, there is love in the air.

When someone drops papers, someone will help them pick them up.

When someone falls down and hurts themselves, someone will help them feel better.

When someone feels sad, someone will make them happy again.

Everyone is helpful and makes Madison a lovable place.

Nicolas Silva, 2nd grade Crestwood Elementry School

EDGEWOOD COLLEGE

