Applicant: Jeff Vercauteren, Husch Blackwell LLP

Applicant's Comments: 122 State Street Group LLC is proposing to redevelop the existing buildings at 122 and 124 State Street and portions of the existing buildings at 118 and 126 State Street for a 130-room hotel. The new building would incorporate the facades and portions of the existing structures at 118 and 126 State Street.

Staff Findings: The building was the original location of the Mautz Brothers Paint Company. Mautz would later become one of Madison's largest industries.

122 State Street

Commercial building constructed in 1917.

The new building would incorporate the facades and portions of the existing structures at 118 and 126 State Street.

Staff Findings: Boelsing building (in the Queen Anne style), 126 State Street, 1907. The two-story bay is flanked by columns in the brick wall to either side and a very wide classical entablature with a rounded pediment above. When the building was first constructed, J.F. Schadauer operated a crockery store there. In 1924, it became Clark's men's clothing store.
