County Departments

Each County Board Supervisor is appointed to 1 of 6 standing committees, and this is where much of the debate on issues occur: Environmental, Agriculture & Natural Resources, Health & Human Needs, Personnel & Finance, Public Protection & Judiciary, Public Works & Transportation, and Zoning & Land Regulation

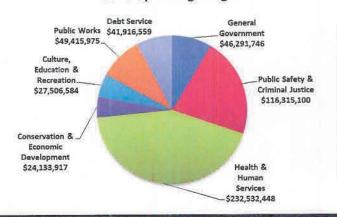

Dane County has doubled in population during the past 50 years. According to the UW-Madison Applied Population Laboratory, Dane County's population will increase to 606,620 — nearly 25% — by the year 2040. Its 2014 estimated population of 516,283 accounts for 40% of the state's total growth since the 2010 census. Since its formation as a territorial county in 1836, population growth has been a constant.

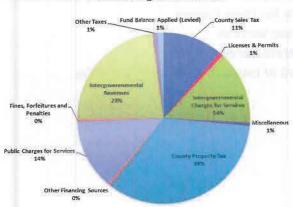

The 2018 operating and capital budget is over $652 million; sources of revenue include funds from the state and federal government, the sales tax, the property tax, and fines and forfeitures. Dane County spends $232 million on human services; $116 million for public safety and criminal justice; $49 million on public works.
