10. Position Summary:

This position is an advanced managerial, professional level position that oversees the human resource functions for the department. This position is the main liaison to the City Human Resources Department, and has supervisory level oversight of both commissioned and non-commissioned staff. This position provides basic consultation to police managers, supervisors, and/or employees on human resource policies, procedures and practices. The work of this position is characterized by an advanced degree of knowledge, judgement, and initiative in developing and implementing strategic human resource related efforts and initiatives of the Chief of Police under the direction of a Police Captain or Police Manager, in accordance with departmental policies, city ordinances, and state/federal laws. The position also provides information and guidance to police employees regarding City of Madison benefits and leave policies. This position represents the Chief while serving on appropriate committees relating to workers compensation, benefits administration and racial equity initiatives. The position administers leave programs (e.g., Family and Medical Leave, AWOP, Disability Leave/Layoff, and extended sick or duty injury leave) for the department, and performs related and other recordkeeping functions. This position participates in the training and leadership of technical and support staff related to program administration, which includes the development, implementation and maintenance of comprehensive administrative systems relative to employee/employment records under the direction of commissioned staff. The work includes the ability to respond to formal and informal requests for employee/employment records and information. The position must be able to perform other complex Human Resources services, support and consultation as directed. This position leads to RESJI initiatives and is the Chief's liaison for these initiatives in the department. The position is lead on planning and conducting rank specific police assessment centers for promotion. This includes evaluation of ranking options and assisting with the determination of exam weights. The position must also address special exam accommodations as needed. This includes work in collaboration with commissioned subject matter experts to develop relevant content. This position needs to evaluate sensitive employment issues (e.g., relative to criminal background, drug and medical reports, etc.) and recommend action. The position has responsibility to develop related systems and processes consistent with organizational needs and governing legislation. The position will need to assist in the preparation of materials requested by legal counsel as it relates to various processes, and testify under oath at arbitrations, hearings and other court proceedings. This position, under the general supervision of a Police Captain or Police Manager, exercises considerable independence, judgement, and leadership in meeting departmental objectives.
