Tag,

I was surprised and disappointed by your assertion, in your email to Heather Strouder dated yesterday, August 22nd, that this neighborhood does not support the siting of more medical and dental clinics in the area. As one of this area's "disadvantaged people," to use Stephen Hurley's preferred characterization, I beg to differ.

Yes, I support local businesses and certainly believe we should encourage their establishment and success. However, there is a demonstrable and urgent need for the provision of affordable, high-quality dental care to Madison's low-income residents. Despite the counterclaims of some very noisy, insistent and, most likely, financially comfortable residents of South Madison, I ask that you, as my Alder, take care to represent the needs and interests of all your constituents.
