RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the Housing Operations Program Manager is a critical leadership position in the Community Development Authority reporting to the CDA Executive Director; and

WHEREAS, Agustin Olvera retired from the Housing Operations Program Manager position in June 2016 and Natalie Erdman retired as the CDA Executive Director in April 2019; and

WHEREAS, Thomas Conrad has served as the Interim Housing Operations Program Manager since Agustin's retirement and as the Acting Executive Director since Natalie's retirement; and

WHEREAS, Tom has continued to fulfill the responsibilities of Section 8 Supervisor while holding the Interim Housing Operations Program Manager and Acting Executive Director positions; and

WHEREAS, Tom has been a source of continuity for the CDA Board of Commissioners, staff, and residents through CDA leadership transitions; and

WHEREAS and Tom has been critical liaison with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development and spokesperson for the CDA; and

WHEREAS, during this interim period, CDA Housing Operations has achieved "Smoke Free Housing"; has received an American Transmission Company Community tree planning grant; and has participated in the Section 8 Moving Up Pilot Program.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that Board of Commissioners of the Community Development Authority of the City of Madison extends its appreciation for Tom Conrad's years of dedicated service and support.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that the Board looks forward to Tom's continued service in the Section 8 program and to benefiting from his accumulated insight and wisdom.
