Duane Johnson,

This email is in response to your submitted diagram which was submitted in response to my initial email to Brian Stoddard on June 26, 2020.

While a complete plan review was neither requested or performed, based on the submitted diagram, the dwelling unit arrangement appears to be in compliance with the intent of Exception #1 of Section 1006.2.1 of the 2015 IBC. As stated in my initial response, the intent of the code, in my opinion, was clarified by the revisions in the 2018 IBC.

A copy of Code Change E17-15 which resulted in the current text in the 2018 IBC is attached for your information.

If you need further assistance, let me know.

Sincerely,

Chris Reeves
