

Madison Police Department Black Officer Coalition

Est: 2020

Presenter: Marcus Robbins, Charles Pratt

Who Are We?

- The Black Officer Coalition consists of black officers within the Madison Police Department (MPD).
- Patrol Officers, Detectives, Community Officers, and a Supervisor who acts as a liaison between the Coalition and MPD Admin.
- Members Years of Policing Experience
 - Range anywhere between 2 – 25 years

Who Are We? (continued)

- A collective of black officers who recognize that the division between the Black Community and Police must be addressed.
- Uniquely suited to bridge the divide.
 - Shared Ethnicity
 - Shared Culture
 - Law Enforcement Experience
 - Minority Experience

Structure

- Co-Chairs
 - Officer Marcus Robbins & Officer Neal Crowder
- Liaison to MPD Administration
 - Lieutenant Harrison Zander
- Secretary
 - Officer Lu Senatus
- Representatives
 - Officer Charles Pratt (Coalition Representative for MPPOA)
- Member Based Organization

Mission Statement

- We the members of the Black Officers Coalition are committed to bridging the gap between the Black Community and the Madison Police Department. Through inclusion, professional relationships and community partnerships we will develop and support the recruitment, retention and promotions of black officers within the Madison Police department.

Core Values

- Inclusivity
- Service to the Community
- Community Collaboration
- Dedication
 - To Our Mission
- Education
- Transparency

What Have We Done?

- Celebration of Life for Anisa Scott
- Assist Community with Food Shortage
 - Partnership with 100 Black Men
 - Thanksgiving Meals
 - Partnering with Metcalfe's Markets
 - Christmas Food Deliveries

Agenda

- Inclusion
- Relationships
 - Community Partnership
- Remaining Mission Oriented

Questions?

Mrobbins@cityofmadison.com

NCrowder@cityofmadison.com

Hzanders@cityofmadison.com