

I will introduce from the floor my proposed amendment reverts Education and Experience sections to original wording as previously passed by the Common Council, with the following amendments (addition in red, deletions in strikethrough):

EDUCATION

A Bachelor's degree or higher in criminal justice, criminology, public administration, public policy, sociology, or a closely related field is required. ~~A Master's degree or a Juris Doctor degree is preferred.~~

EXPERIENCE

- Leadership experience in the field of public or private administration or in the practice of law.
- Six years of full-time equivalent verifiable professional experience in complex investigations, preferably in the criminal justice or civil rights arena.
- Experience working with individuals of diverse ethnic, cultural and socio-economic backgrounds.
- ~~An ideal candidate would have specific expertise in police monitoring, civilian oversight administration, and procedural justice~~
