Review of 2015 Nomination Applications

Erlanger thanked DeMarb for giving such a big push at the end and encouraging community members to submit nominations.

Ragland suggested that nominators for this year's submissions be added to the outreach list so that they can be reminded to submit again next year.

Committee members acknowledged receipt of four applications. It was determined that all applications would be considered.

Committee members added up individual scores.

Discussion of 2015 Nominees

Committee members discussed the merits of the nominees and narrowed the decision down to Greer and Lazo. Committee discussed giving two awards out this year. Determined that it would be better to encourage nomination in 2016 for those not selected as this year's recipient.
