Room 108, City County Building
210 Martin Luther King Jr Blvd
Madison, WI. 53703

CALL TO ORDER / ROLL CALL

Present: 4 - Gary A. Weber; Robert Van Kampen; Joseph P. Kunz and Fayth E. Kail

Excused: 1 - Jeffrey S. Buhrandt

1. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

A motion was made by Van Kampen, seconded by Kunz, to approve the minutes of the September 19, 2017 meeting. The motion passed by voice vote/other.

2. PUBLIC COMMENT

None

3. DISCLOSURES AND RECUSALS

None

4. NEW BUSINESS

5.1. 42076

Putnam to report on location of spaces reserved for persons with Dis/Vet plates or hang tags near food court entrance at West Towne Mall.

Putnam said there are two new aisles that have been designated with spaces reserved for persons with Dis/Vet plates or hang tags near food court entrance. This item has been addressed.

5.2. Putnam to report on request to Building Inspection to modify South Madison branch library parking stalls reserved for persons with disabilities.

Putnam said he has reached out to BI who are in discussion with the Director of Planning, Community & Economic Development. Putnam to follow up and see what decision is made

6. DISCUSSION ITEMS

6.1. Discuss issue of snow being piled in Disabled stalls.

No snowfall yet this year.

7. Other business for referral.

Kail had a question about the requirement for the height for a mirror in a building, and dis/vet signs. Putnam replied that signs are 7' above the pavement. Putnam to check on mirror height. Putnam noted that TORC has recommended that existing committees remain until the new Transportation Director is hired. Putnam asked if PCFPWD members were willing to serve into 2018. Kunz stated that para transit is going to be curb to curb starting next February and will be cash only. Kail stated that the state got an exemption for the curb to curb for winter months. She doesn't know what the status is of this exemption. Putnam to check into this. This is imperative for many people such as Community Living Alliance and those with mobility challenges. Kail stated that whether this committee continues into the new year depends on whether transportation is still provided or not. Transportation is a serious concern for all people with disabilities.

8. Assignments

Putnam to check with BI on library. Putnam to check on para transit service in 2018. Putnam to check on when para transit will be coming up next with the Common Council. Putnam to check to see whether citizen advisory commission for people with disabilities is being disbanded and let Fayth know.
