The Plaza Tavern and Grill

Executive Summary

Savor the Moments at The Plaza Tavern and Grill: Where Community Meets Flavor

The Plaza Tavern and Grill is a cherished bar and grill located in the heart of Madison, Wisconsin. Known for its warm and inviting atmosphere, it has become a cornerstone in the community, offering a distinctive blend of quality food, refreshing drinks, and engaging entertainment. Our signature Plaza Sauce and diverse range of interactive activities set us apart, making us a favorite amongst locals, students, and visitors alike.

Mission

To provide a welcoming and enjoyable space where community members and visitors can enjoy exceptional food and beverages in a vibrant atmosphere, fostering a sense of belonging and connection.

Problem

Madison lacks a bar and grill that consistently delivers both quality dining and diverse entertainment options, particularly for the local university student population.

Solution

The Plaza Tavern and Grill addresses this gap by offering a unique combination of delicious food, an extensive selection of drinks, and a variety of interactive entertainment options like pool, darts, and pinball.

Primary Products & Services

Our main offerings include a menu of high-quality grill items, our famous Plaza Sauce, a wide selection of beverages with 12 tap lines, and entertainment options such as pool tables, dart boards, and pinball machines.

Primary Business Model

The Plaza Tavern and Grill operates on a dine-in and takeout service model, targeting local residents, university students, and tourists. Our revenue is primarily generated through food and drink sales, supported by special events and promotions to attract and engage customers.

Title

Amending Section 38.05(9)(a) and creating 38.05(b) and (c) of the Madison General Ordinances related to Class A and Class "A" alcohol beverage licenses to impose geographic limitations on "Class A" and Class "A" license applications considered by the Common Council after adoption of this ordinance for purposes of regulating density of such alcohol beverage licenses.

Body

DRAFTER'S ANALYSIS: This ordinance provides an objective basis for limiting the granting of liquor licenses for "Class A" and Class "A" establishments for the purpose of limiting density and proximity of such licenses to sensitive sites. A "Class A" license authorizes the retail sale of intoxicating liquor for consumption off the licensed premises where sold in the original packages and containers (also authorizes on premises free taste samples in limited quantities). A Class "A" license authorizes retail sales of fermented malt beverages (e.g. beer, wine coolers) for consumption off the licensed premises where sold and in the original packages, containers, and bottles (also authorizes on premises free taste samples in limited quantities). No sale of alcohol beverages is permitted between the hours of 9 pm and 8 am. Currently there are no limitations on how many "Class A" and Class "A" alcohol beverage licenses can be approved and issued by a municipality. The decision to limit such licenses lies within the individual municipality. The City of Madison currently has 131 active Class A licenses. An applicant has no legal right to the issuance of an alcohol beverage license. Such license is a privilege, not a right. This amendment seeks to limit density and concentration of "Class A" and Class "A" alcohol beverage licenses near sensitive sites by imposing geographic limitations. Research has shown that an over-concentration of alcohol outlets increases the level of alcohol-related disorder and crime. High alcohol outlet density is associated with many social harms among neighborhoods in and around the alcohol outlets, such as disorderly conduct, noise, neighborhood disruption, public nuisance, and property damage. High alcohol outlet density is also linked with many alcohol-attributable effects among neighborhoods further away from alcohol outlets, such as alcohol-impaired driving, pedestrian injuries, domestic violence, and child abuse and neglect. The Task Force on Community Preventive Services (Campbell et al., 2009) recommended that "limiting alcohol beverage outlet density-either by reducing density levels or limiting density growth-can be an effective means of reducing the harms associated with excessive alcohol consumption." This ordinance would apply to all Class A license applications filed with the City of Madison Clerk's Office, or already on file in the Clerk's Office but not yet granted, upon adoption.

The Common Council of the City of Madison do hereby ordain as follows:

1. Subdivision (a) entitled "Class A License" of Subsection (9) entitled "Limitation Upon Issuance of Licenses" of Section 38.05 entitled "General Licensing Requirements" of the Madison General Ordinances is amended as follows:

- "(a) Class A License- Applicant Qualifications: No Class A license shall be granted except to a person who is ~~of good moral character~~ qualified under Wis. Stat. s. 125.04(5), and who has resided in the State of Wisconsin continuously for not less than ninety (90) days prior to the date of filing the application for license. No such license shall be issued to any person acting as agent for or in the employ of another. The individual licensee of a Class A license shall continue to be a resident of Wisconsin during the term of her/his license. The Common Council may revoke such license when such individual applicant ceases to be a resident of Wisconsin during the term of her/his license, but such revocation shall only be had following the giving of proper notice to the licensee and a proper hearing before the Alcohol License Review Committee.

2. Paragraph 1. entitled "Geographic Limitations" and Paragraph 2. entitled "Exemptions" of Subsection (9) entitled "Limitation Upon Issuance of Licenses" of Section 38.05 entitled

"General Licensing Requirements" of the Madison General Ordinances are created as follows:

- "1. Geographic Limitations. No "Class A" or Class "A" license shall be granted or issued for an establishment under the following conditions:
 - a. If the site is within the distance restriction, and other provisions in MGO 38.05(3)(f) related to schools, churches, hospitals, and libraries.
 - b. If the site is within one thousand three hundred and twenty (1,320) feet of an entity providing services to unhoused individuals. This distance shall be measured in a straight line from the two entities' nearest parcel boundaries.
 - c. If the site is within one thousand three hundred and twenty (1,320) feet of the boundary of any parcel occupied by a treatment facility as defined in Wisconsin State Statute Chapter 51. This distance shall be measured in a straight line from the two entities' nearest parcel boundaries.
 - d. If the site is within one thousand three hundred and twenty (1,320) feet of any public park. This distance shall be measured in a straight line from the nearest parcel boundaries of the establishment and the park.
2. Exemptions. The following establishments are not subject to the geographic limitations set forth in subsection (b):
 - a. Drug stores/pharmacies that are licensed by the Pharmacy Examining Board pursuant to § 450.05, Wis. Stat.
 - b. Grocery stores that regularly and customarily sell grocery items for off-premises consumption. These establishments shall have and maintain groceries that are readily available to the public. "Grocery stores" shall not include establishments that provide automobile services, such as gasoline sales, automobile service, or repair."

Hello,

I commend Alds. Regina Vidaver, Sabrina Madison and Derek Field for taking a bold stance on limiting alcohol outlet density in Madison. I have been urging this for several years but gave up due to a lack of response from elected officials. I am glad it is being given more consideration.

I would also urge the Council to consider not only liquor stores, but also other outlets, when considering density. I am attaching a comprehensive review I completed a while ago looking at the issue.

Also, I live right next to Hawthorne Library and strongly oppose the liquor store being proposed for across the street. I will submit my comments to my Alder and the ALRC.

Kind Regards,
Dan Nordstrom

Alcohol Outlet Density in Madison, Wisconsin (Updated: 6/12/21)

Dan Nordstrom, LCSW

Limiting alcohol outlet density is one of the best ways for communities to address the many economic and social costs caused by excessive drinking.

This paper will provide an overview of the problem of excessive drinking, explain what Alcohol Outlet Density is and to encourage policymakers to create responsible alcohol outlet density policies based on recommendations by the Centers for Disease Control and other public health organizations.

The Impact of Alcohol Overuse on Health and Safety

Excessive and chronic drinking contributes to a national epidemic of alcohol abuse, including causing 88,000 alcohol related fatalities per year and high rates of alcohol dependence. Alcohol use is the 3rd highest cause of preventable death.¹ Alcohol is involved in one quarter of suicides,² as well as deaths, illnesses and injuries from fires, drowning, sexual assaults and other violence, alcohol poisoning, fetal alcohol syndrome, miscarriage, risky sexual behaviors, high blood pressure, heart disease, stroke, liver disease, digestive problems, cancer (breast, mouth, throat, esophagus, liver, and colon), depression, anxiety, learning and memory problems, and dementia.³ A large study found in a 2018 report that there is no safe amount of alcohol use in terms of cancer risk.⁴ Another major study published in 2018 in the prestigious Lancet found there is no health advantage to consuming any amount of alcohol. Instead the study found that there are significant risks and costs.⁵ In 2019 a study also published in the Lancet debunked the argument that moderate drinking lowers the risk of stroke.⁶ Furthermore, there is no safe amount of alcohol consumption of a mother that is safe for a developing fetus.⁷ According to national statistics, Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders are observed in between 2-5% of all children, which is a higher prevalence than Autism.⁸

The issue is getting worse. A recent article in the New York Times found that alcohol related ER visits have increased 50% since 2000, as well as finding that cirrhosis of the liver cases in the U.S. have increased after having decreased for decades.⁹ Falls and dementia rates, mostly affecting citizens over the age of 65, have been found to be twice as high among those diagnosed with alcohol use disorder.^{10 11}

Injuries from motor vehicle accidents and violence can be largely attributed to alcohol use, representing approximately one-third of all traffic fatalities involving automobiles, motorcycles and pedestrians.¹² Children and elderly pedestrians are especially at risk of injury or death due to intoxicated drivers. Half of all pedestrians killed by cars were killed when either the pedestrian or driver had been drinking. One in every five children under age 15 killed in traffic accidents are pedestrians. People 65 or older were 19% of all pedestrians killed in traffic accidents in 2015.¹³ Wisconsin has higher arrest rates than the nation overall for operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated and more than three times the national rate of arrests for other liquor law violations. Our citizens also have the highest rate of self-reported drinking and driving in the country.¹⁴ Nationally, “There are more alcohol-impaired driving deaths per year than deaths attributable to certain cancers, HIV/AIDS, and drownings.”¹⁵

With regard to injuries and deaths due to violence, one study showed, “Approximately 2 in 5 violent deaths and 1 in 4 emergency department visits for violence-related injuries are due to excessive alcohol use.”¹⁶ ¹⁷ Alcohol is also the most frequently used substance involved in sexual assault, and is found to be used by the survivor, the perpetrator or both in half of all reported cases of sexual assault.¹⁸

The Impact of Alcohol Overuse on the Economy

Studies have also found an economic burden on states, counties and cities as public safety, human services, legal and medical resources are impacted. A 2019 report issued by the Wisconsin Population Health Institute found that the cost of alcohol policies in Wisconsin cost taxpayers approximately $3.9 billion.¹⁹ Nationally, a report released in 2016 by the US Surgeon General found that social costs of alcohol misuse to be $249 billion.²⁰ As a comparison, the opioid epidemic causes $78.5 billion in social costs per year to the country.²¹ These costs include the financial impact that communities, states and society in general bear including missed days at work, health and law enforcement costs and deaths. Homelessness is also exacerbated by alcohol and other drug use.²²

The economic health of cities and neighborhoods are adversely affected by higher alcohol outlet density because bars and restaurants crowd out other types of businesses. While bars and restaurants do employ many people in our economy, workers are often not paid as well as in other types of businesses.²³ The city of Madison is currently studying the impact of alcohol outlets on surrounding businesses.²⁴

Community development is also heavily impacted as nonprofits, grocery stores, affordable housing and other needed public enterprises are not able to compete with the rent paid for commercial real estate by restaurants and bars.

Wisconsin's complicated relationship with alcohol

Our City and State's approach to alcohol consumption is problematic and alarming. Wisconsin citizens have higher rates of excessive drinking as well as risk factors and outcomes affecting individuals, families and communities as compared to other states. A 2016 report found that Madison residents have the 4th highest percentage of residents who report drinking heavily or engaging in binge drinking.²⁵ Nationwide, Wisconsin is 1st place in residents who engage in chronic and heavy drinking.^{26 27} Among women between the ages of 18 and 44, Wisconsin has the highest rates of both any alcohol use in the previous month and of binge drinking.²⁸ There has been a disturbing rise in proportion of deaths among women due to alcohol nationally in the past twenty years, as well as during the 2020-2021 pandemic.²⁹

Contrary to popular belief, binge drinking is a larger problem than chronic alcohol dependence and is associated with greater health, safety, economic and social impacts. Almost all people who drink excessively do not meet the definition of meeting the diagnostic criteria for having a severe alcohol use disorder.³⁰ Binge drinking is defined as having a Blood Alcohol Concentration (BAC) above 0.08% during one sitting, or about 4 drinks in a two hour period for women or 5 drinks for men.³¹

According to the Wisconsin Alcohol Policy Project, the state's higher drinking rates and negative outcomes are not due to Wisconsin's culture, but rather, are affected by a strong business lobby that opposes limiting the availability of alcohol or by increasing its costs. Wisconsin's problem is caused by the, "4 A's:" of Availability, Attractiveness, Affordability, and Acceptance.³² Wisconsin Public Radio published a series on this subject on May 13, 2019, titled, "High Tolerance: Wisconsin's Complicated Relationship with Alcohol."³³

Overview of Alcohol Outlet Density

Alcohol availability can be measured by comparing Alcohol Outlet Density by population. Alcohol outlets include all, “gas stations, bars, liquor stores, tasting rooms and restaurants.”³⁴ Dane County has a rate of 1 alcohol outlet for every 440 residents. While this rate is lower than the state average of one outlet per 330 residents, it is higher than the national average of one outlet per 1,400 residents.³⁵ In Aldermanic District 6 I found there to be one outlet per approximately 150 residents (approximately 90 outlets for 13,500 residents).³⁶ A Google map of all alcohol outlets in Aldermanic District 6 is available on my personal website.³⁷ An updated map of alcohol outlet density is available from the City of Madison.³⁸

The impacts on the areas where there is a high concentration of alcohol outlets are well understood. A meta-study published in 2008 found that, “Neighborhoods where bars, restaurants and liquor and other stores that sell alcohol are close together suffer more frequent incidences of violence and other alcohol-related problems.”³⁹ This is backed up by a 2019 study completed by the City of Madison.⁴⁰

The widespread availability of alcohol has a negative economic and public health impact on our city and state, and it is getting worse. The trend will continue without effective municipal and state policies to balance the availability of alcohol with the public interest. Limiting alcohol outlet density is an effective method to save taxpayer dollars, help the local economy and improve public health and to prevent violence, crime, injuries and death.

Madison imposed a moratorium on new taverns in the downtown area from 2007-2014, but failed to include restaurants in the ordinance.⁴¹ A proposal in Madison that was recently considered would have restricted additional alcohol outlets in certain high density areas.⁴² There is a current moratorium on new outlets in a small district near the UW-Madison Campus, called the Alcohol Overlay District, that was imposed in 2014 and scheduled to be discontinued at the end of 2019.⁴³

Recommendations

The City of Madison should impose a moratorium on new alcohol outlet licenses in neighborhoods in excess of alcohol outlets at a rate of 1 per 400 residents in each aldermanic district. Furthermore, alcohol should be limited in locations adjacent to places where children are present including schools, parks, churches, community centers and other public places.

In addition to imposing limits on Alcohol Outlet Density, the City of Madison should explore placing (a) limits on drink specials, (b) limits on alcohol advertising in public areas, (c) limits on outdoor seating at bars and restaurants that serve alcohol, (d) limiting alcohol sales at athletic and community events, (d) avoid alcohol sales near schools, parks and community centers, and consider (e) increasing funding for the prevention of alcohol misuse through public safety, human services and public health agencies.

Re: Effectiveness of Placing Geographic Limitations on Where New Class A Licensed Premises may be Located as a Strategy for Reducing Excessive Alcohol Use and Alcohol-Related Harms

Issue: How would a proposed ordinance placing geographic limitations on new Class A off-premises alcohol licenses be anticipated to impact public health and safety?

Brief Answer: Violence, injury, and underage drinking is greater when alcohol is abundant and available for off-premises consumption, such as in situations where there is a high density of Class A off-premises alcohol retail outlets. Reducing the density of Class A off-premises outlets can decrease violence, injury, and underage drinking. Placing a moratorium on new liquor stores in areas near facilities that serve children, people with developmental disabilities, unhoused people, and people in treatment for mental illness or substance use, could improve the public health of some of the city's most vulnerable populations.

Background: The effects of alcohol outlet density and violence, injury, and underage drinking have been extensively studied, with evidence from many countries, including the United States. Thomas Babor, et al. have summarized the effectiveness of various policies to reduce alcohol consumption and alcohol related problems in their book, ALCOHOL NO ORDINARY COMMODITY, 3rd Ed. Regarding outlet density, they summarize, "Major changes to outlet density . . . clearly affect consumption and harm rates. Evidence for gradual changes . . . is strongest for violence."ⁱ Restricting the spatial availability of alcohol is "consistently associated with reductions in both alcohol use and alcohol-related problems."ⁱ

Analysis: Increased Class A off-premises alcohol outlet density is associated with increased underage drinking, increased assaults, street violence, domestic (and intimate partner) violence, motor vehicle crashes, and other forms of injury.ⁱⁱ The size of the outlets may also be a factor, as places that sell large quantities of alcohol are also associated with increases in consumption, injury, and violence.ⁱⁱⁱ

Multiple studies have shown that the more alcohol is available in a neighborhood, the more adolescents consume alcohol.^{iv} A key study showed that for every 10% increase in overall alcohol outlet density there was a 17% increase in the odds that a teenager would drink alcohol the next year.^v In other words, the more alcohol outlets there are in a community, the more teens drink. One effective way to keep the number of alcohol outlets low and allow reduction by attrition is to not grant licenses for new alcohol outlets. The proposed ordinance would effectively prohibit new Class A licenses for liquor stores and gas station/convenience stores in areas within 1,320 feet of facilities that provide services for unhoused individuals, facilities that provide mental health or substance use treatment, and public parks. With time and attrition, the ordinance may result in reduced numbers of Class A off-premises retail alcohol outlets in Madison.

Off-premises alcohol outlets tend to be crime generators. Reducing the number of off-premises retail alcohol outlets reduces violence. There are several reasons for this:

- One is that “Reducing supply by restricting physical availability will increase effort to obtain alcohol, and thereby reduce total volume consumed as well as alcohol-related problems.”^{vi}
- Another is that alcohol is a pharmacologically psychoactive beverage that dulls the reflexes and disinhibits behavior – which makes people both more likely to offend and to be victimized, thereby increasing the likelihood of accidents, violence, and injury. Reducing its availability reduces its use, and thereby reduces the violence and injury associated with it, such as motor vehicle crashes, falls, domestic violence, and other assaults.
- A third reason is that alcohol stores provide places where people can congregate, attract people from outside communities who are not interested in caring for the community where they are shopping or who may be looking for opportunities for criminal activity, and at the same time do not provide “guardians” who can supervise the drinking. Prof. Alexandra Snowden, who works at Marquette University, writes:

Off-premise alcohol outlets may serve as crime attractors that bring to these premises the motivated offenders in search of vulnerable targets in places that lack capable guardians. In the context of off-premise alcohol outlets, the guardianship over vulnerable targets is limited as the patrons’ visits to the outlets typically last just long enough to purchase the product. . . . Some off-premise alcohol outlets may specialize in the sale of single-serve products that are designed for immediate consumption, and may attract the patrons to the premise in search of the product that can be consumed immediately following the purchase in the near vicinity of the outlet, creating the opportunity for motivated offenders to act upon.^{vii}

Dr. Snowden has done extensive research on violence and alcohol outlets in Milwaukee. She found that many types of violence and crime associated significantly with the density of Class A off-premises outlets, including assault, robberies, and domestic violence, even controlling for neighborhood characteristics. She also found that the effect of off-premises Class A outlets on violence, especially male-on-female domestic violence occurred not just in the neighborhood where the outlets were located but also in immediately adjoining neighborhoods.^{viii} In addition, during the COVID-19 pandemic, the increased use of off-premises outlets as the source of alcohol (as opposed to drinking socially in controlled on-premises environments such as restaurants and bars) probably contributed to greater levels of drinking and likely contributed to increased domestic violence. Dr. Snowden recommends:

The first step in reducing domestic violence would be to also reduce the number of off-premise alcohol outlets operating within adjacent neighborhoods and prevent new off-premise alcohol outlets from opening in neighborhoods which already have a large concentration of off-premise alcohol outlets, and which border neighborhoods with similarly high concentrations of such outlets.^{ix}

Conclusion: Reducing the concentration of Class A off-premises alcohol outlets and reducing the amount of alcohol sold by individual Class A off-premises alcohol outlets are both policies that can result in less underage alcohol consumption, and lower rates of violence and injury. An ordinance that limits the availability of Class A licenses may decrease the amount of underage drinking and decrease rates of violence and injury in the community.

Members of the Alcohol Licensing Review Committee:

The Greater Madison Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors opposes the proposed changes to Madison General Ordinances (File #83669) that would place new citywide regulations and restrictions on alcohol licensing.

We appreciate the author's communication and desire to seek input on the issue from local businesses. Ultimately, we believe this is a solution in search of a problem with potential significant consequences for small businesses and entrepreneurs.

Addressing chronic alcohol use is a worthwhile and understandable objective, but a citywide policy that does not consider unique neighborhood characteristics and needs is an ill-advised approach.

From a business perspective, there are still many unanswered questions. What does this mean for businesses looking to renovate? Will this policy serve as a disincentive to making improvements for fear of losing a license? Blanket policies treat all Class A licensed establishments the same, including new, innovative business models that serve as neighborhood gathering establishments with multiple functions, including coffee shops, arcades, bookstores and tasting rooms. Are these the type of businesses we want to reduce in Madison?

Perhaps most importantly as to why this is a solution in search of a problem is the process. The Alcohol Licensing Review Committee already has the authority to reject and renew alcohol licenses where problems occur.

Again, while we appreciate the intent and transparency, there are other ways to tackle these issues beyond a citywide blanket policy that stands to negatively impact small business.

Feel free to contact me directly if you have any questions or comments.

Thank you.

Subject: Opposition to Proposed City of Madison Ordinance Related to Geographic Limitations on "Class A" and Class "A" License Applications

On behalf of alcohol beverage industry stakeholders, the Madison Alcohol Advisory Council writes to express concerns with the proposed ordinance (File #83669) to impose geographic limitations on "Class A" and Class "A" license applications considered by the Common Council.

While the goal of addressing excessive alcohol use and alcohol related issues is laudable, we do not believe blanket geographic limitations on alcohol beverage retailers to be an effective strategy. As a result, we respectfully urge the Common Council to oppose this proposal.

First, by exempting large, institutional and chain grocery stores from the new license restrictions, the proposed ordinance discriminates against small, independent businesses, many of which are owned by persons of color and new residents to our community and country. We are unaware of any evidence that shows alcohol related disorder and crime is tied to the location of Class A licensed establishments, or a density of these licensees. Moreover, there certainly is no evidence indicating that that small, neighborhood retail outlets are more problematic for the City than large, regional grocery stores.

Another consequence of eliminating small, neighborhood retail outlets is that it would likely diminish local foot and bicycle traffic while encouraging the use of motorized vehicles to travel to larger, regional grocery stores. Additionally, by discouraging the development of small neighborhood retail stores, the problem of food deserts in the community is almost certain to be exacerbated.

Public support for the proposed policy also appears to be minimal. According to a University of Wisconsin Population Health Institute survey of opinions regarding alcohol use and related problems in the Greenbush-Vilas neighborhood, the majority of respondents felt that limiting alcohol outlet density would be ineffective¹. Few people surveyed thought that extending the City's Alcohol Licensing Density Ordinance would be an effective method of limiting excessive drinking.

As you know, the City has experienced a significant rise in locally owned and operated breweries, wineries and distilleries in recent years. Unfortunately, the proposed ordinance has the potential to negatively impact these small craft producers as it would result in fewer small, neighborhood retail outlets who are more likely to sell locally produced alcohol beverages than the large grocery chains which are unaffected by the license limitations.

Lastly, it is important to recognize the proposed ordinance is unnecessary as the Alcohol License Review Committee and Common Council already hold the authority to reject, revoke, or refuse to renew alcohol licenses. Limiting the number of alcohol beverage retail licenses can currently be done on a license-by-license basis as each applicant comes before the ALRC and Council.

For these reasons, we respectfully ask the Common Council to reject the proposed geographic limitations on "Class A" and Class "A" licenses in the City of Madison.

Thank you for your consideration.

June 24, 2024

To Members of the Madison City ALRC,

I wish to comment in writing on the following topics scheduled for the June 26, 2024 ALRC agenda.

55. 83669 Amending Section 38.05(9)(a) and creating 38.05(b) and (c) of the Madison General Ordinances related to Class A and Class "A" alcohol beverage licenses

- I am in support of decreasing Alcohol Outlet Density, and urge the ALRC to address policy gaps in this area. In addition to the comments on page 226 of the Agenda packet, I wish to suggest that geographical/distance rules should include COMMUNITY HEALTH CLINICS and COMMUNITY CENTERS in addition to schools, churches, hospitals, and libraries.
- I recommend the ALRC discuss why they use 300 feet should be the appropriate distance for a new Class A outlet from one of these entities, and perhaps consider recommending that it be extended to be the same distance as the other proposed distances of 1,320 feet from the parcel boundaries.

56. 82871 Public Hearing - New License Refuel Pantry Inc • dba Refuel Pantry 2702 E Washington Ave

- This is an inappropriate location for a new license due to the existing high density of Alcohol Outlets in this area, and its proximity to the Dane County and City of Madison Public Health Department office as well as Hawthorne Public Library.

Note: I live at 2418 Winnebago St. (Union Corners) and am a parent of a child attending MMSD.

58. 83199 Public Hearing - New License MPL Corporation Investment • dba Crown Liquor 3510 E Washington Ave

I oppose this new license due to the existing high density of licenses in the area, as well as its proximity to Madison College - Truax as well as the East Madison Community Center.

64. 83708 Public Hearing - New License Sai Mart Atwood Inc • dba Atwood Mart 2801 Atwood Ave

- I oppose this license due to the existing high density of alcohol outlets in the area as well its proximity to the Goodman Community Center.

Thank you for considering.

Hello,

In response to a letter submitted by lobbyists representing alcohol manufacturers, distributors and vendors calling themselves the Madison Alcohol Advisory Council, I wish to respond to some confusing assertions:

1. The new ordinance would not 'eliminate' any existing retailer, nor would it prohibit anyone from selling alcohol under a current license. I don't know why the lobbyists would suggest that anything is being eliminated from what currently exists.
2. There is evidence showing harms from the density of alcohol outlets. Here are two sources: Impacts of Alcohol Outlet Density on the Provision of City Services (2019) City of Madison Finance Department, Public Health Madison & Dane County. Retrieved from the web on October 24, 2019 at <https://madison.legistar.com/View.ashx?M=F&ID=7813515&GUID=53CD62F3-B627-4872-BBB8-BF157B34E768>
Stewart, Kathryn. (2008). How Alcohol Outlets Affect Neighborhood Violence. Pacific Institute for Research and Evaluation, Prevention Research Center, UC-Berkeley. Retrieved from the web on December 20, 2017 at <http://resources.prev.org/documents/AlcoholViolenceGruenewald.pdf>
3. I agree that grocery stores should not be exempt. Alcohol outlets should include any type of business where alcohol is dispensed, and this is how Alcohol Outlet Density is defined.

My hope is that the ALRC and the city of Madison will seriously consider Alcohol Outlet Density and come up with meaningful guidelines that both protect the public, conserve city and nonprofit resources, and also respect the interests of the business community and rights of consumers.

As a possible suggestion, I propose the following Alcohol Outlet Density Guidelines:

The City of Madison should impose a moratorium on new alcohol outlet licenses in neighborhoods in excess of alcohol outlets at a rate of 1 per 400 residents per aldermanic district. Furthermore, alcohol should be limited in locations adjacent to places where children are present including schools, parks, churches, community centers, libraries, clinics, hospitals, treatment centers and other public places, with a rule of at least 1,000 feet distance between the nearest corner of the parcel of the proposed license.

Thanks for considering,
Dan Nordstrom

The applicant has not followed up on this application since it was referred over a year ago. I held a neighborhood meeting on 6/12/23 and about 31 people attended. Some people were in general support of the application but some nearby neighbors, affected by noise from the rear parking lot and concerned about violations of the existing conditions on the license (especially no trash pick up between 9p and 7a), were in strong opposition to having a rear yard patio. I don't understand how the application could be lost in limbo after two referrals and appreciate Deputy Clerk Jim Verbick placing it on the agenda for resolution. I support placing this application on file without prejudice.

I support the withdrawal.

Map of active and pending class A alcohol licenses in the city of Madison overlaid on the Area Deprivation Index for Madison Census block groups
June 26, 2024

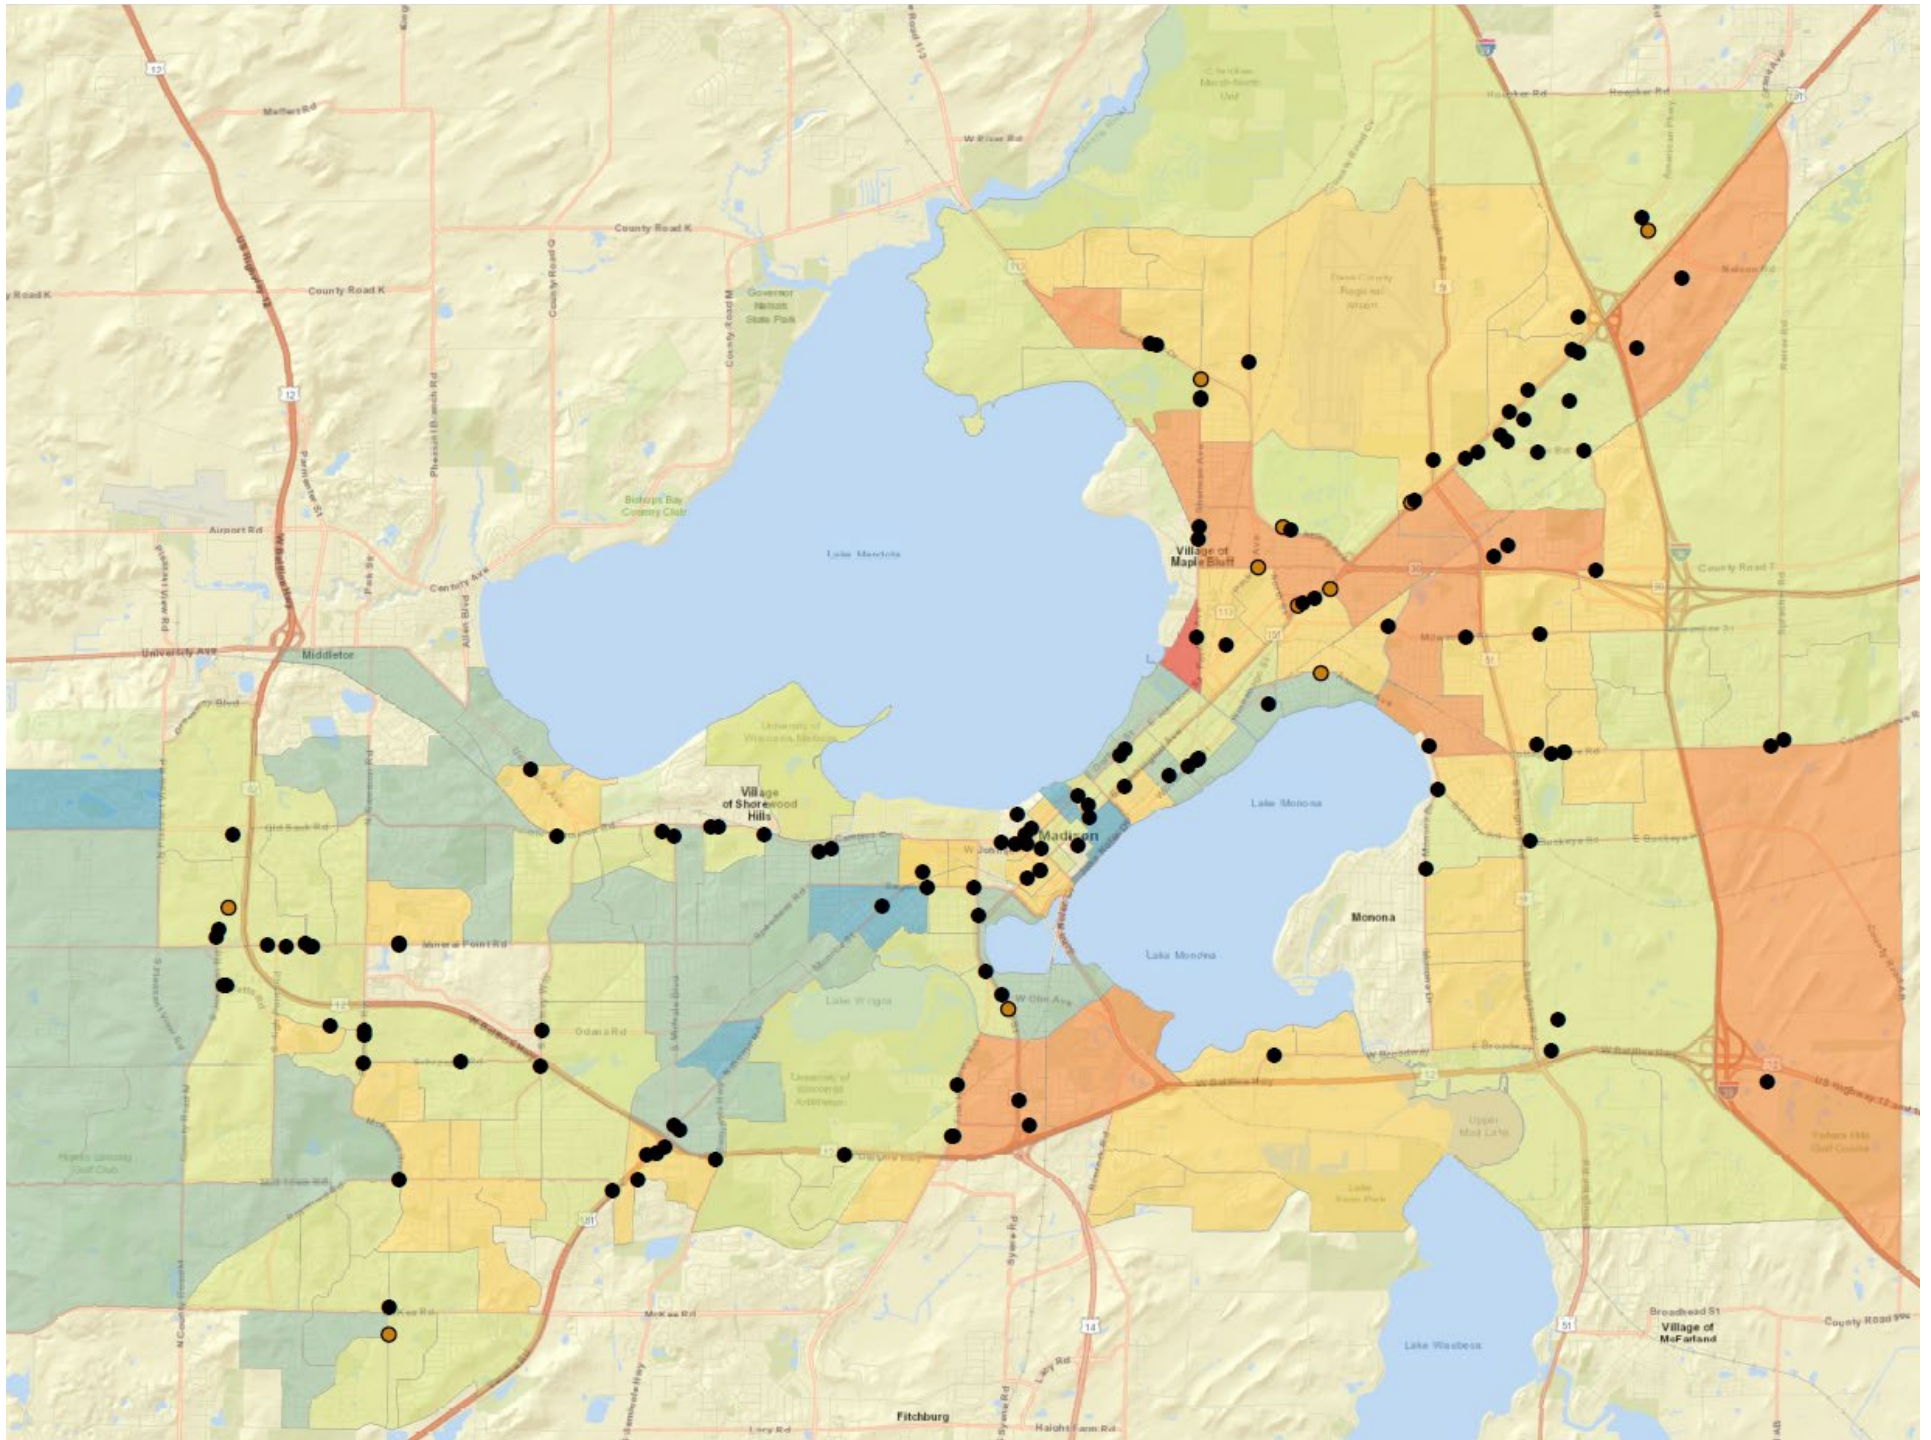

Legend:

Class A Alcohol Licenses

- Active
- Pending

Area Deprivation Index (ADI) for Madison Census Block Groups (National Percentile Rankings)

(Lowest level of “disadvantage”)
- ADI Class 3
- ADI Class 4
- ADI Class 5
- ADI Class 6
(Highest level of “disadvantage”)

Summary Table:

Class A license rates skewed toward areas with mid-and higher-level Area Deprivation Index classes.

ADI class	Number of licenses (active + pending)	Total population of census block groups within ADI class	Rate of licenses per 100,000 population
1	2	10,795	18.5
2	11	53,007	20.8
3	60	94,159	63.7
4	43	79,820	53.9
5	14	24,485	57.2
6	1	2,127	47.0
NA	7	21,118	33.1
Total	138	285,511	48.3

Data Notes:

- Some block groups do not receive an ADI rank (“NA” in the above table) because they have low population and/or housing, a high group quarters population, or questionable data integrity due to missing data. Six of the seven licenses located in block groups without an ADI rank are located in the downtown Madison/campus area which has many students and a high percent of the population living in group quarters.

- Census block group populations were obtained from the 2020 Census. The total population of 285,511 is larger than the total Madison population of 269,840 because some block groups cross city boundaries. A limitation of this map is that it only contains licenses for the City of Madison, and there may be additional alcohol establishments within these block groups that are outside of the city of Madison.
- ADI national percentiles were used to categorize each Census block group. The percentiles for the Madison block groups had a range of 1-86. These were then converted into an ADI Class of 1 through 6 by using equal intervals:
 - ADI Class 1: ADI national percentile of 1-15
 - ADI Class 2: ADI national percentile of 16-29
 - ADI Class 3: ADI national percentile of 30-43
 - ADI Class 4: ADI national percentile of 44-57
 - ADI Class 5: ADI national percentile of 58-71
 - ADI Class 6: ADI national percentile of 72+

About the Area Deprivation Index (ADI)

The Area Deprivation Index (ADI) is based on a measure created by the Health Resources & Services Administration (HRSA) over three decades ago, and has since been refined, adapted, and validated to the Census block group neighborhood level by Amy Kind, MD, PhD and her research team at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. It allows for rankings of neighborhoods by socioeconomic disadvantage in a region of interest (e.g., at the state or national level). It includes factors for the theoretical domains of income, education, employment, and housing quality. It can be used to inform health delivery and policy, especially for the most disadvantaged neighborhood groups.

To whom it may concern,

I wanted to share my opinion on agenda item 55 in the alcohol license review committee. I am proposing that the already dense population of establishments selling and serving liquor in the East Washington Ave area be considered similar to downtown in regards to agenda item 55, which would enact restrictions on future licensing opportunities based on existing license density. With a quick Google search it is easy to find > 20 liquor stores in less than a 5 mile radius just east of the isthmus, not to mention the numerous restaurants serving alcoholic beverages. As a loyal customer of multiple restaurants and stores in the East Wash area, several of which serve and sell alcohol, I am concerned that continuing to grant additional licenses in this area will have a significant negative impact on these local businesses currently serving alcohol to Madison natives. Therefore, I am hoping that the East Washington Ave and adjacent areas be strongly considered along with the downtown area for the agenda item #55 discussion, which would take into account the high density of existing alcohol licenses in this area of the city as it has for downtown Madison.

Thank you,

Grayson

Alders -

I'm not in favor of the current proposal to limit new class A licenses within 1/4 mile of many uses, including parks, schools, libraries, etc. But maybe not for the reason you have heard before.

Many grocery stores can only exist financially by selling beer, wine, and other alcoholic beverages. In mixed-use areas of the city, with many schools and small parks, new local grocery stores (or convenience stores) would not be able to get a liquor license. This actually may be disincentive to locate in areas that need access to local stores.

In my neighborhood and nearby District 5 -- where sponsor Alder Vidivar lives -- the following would not be able to hold a liquor license, if they didn't already exist: Trader Joes, Regent Coop, Barriques, Fresh Mart, as well as Miller's liquor, the BP station on University Ave, and the Spirit Mart at Franklin and University. All these are within 1/4 mile of either a school or a park.

We are striving to have neighborhoods where people can meet their daily needs without driving. The corner grocery, and yes, Kwik Trip, BP station, or other gas station are places people buy milk, frozen pizzas, and even fresh fruits and vegetables as well as a six pack or bottle of wine. Larger grocery stores allow people to do their shopping locally and without driving.

However, for better or worse, many of these establishments cannot survive financially without selling alcohol, even if it's just beer.

When you consider your vote, consider how many of your daily needs might not be available if new or existing stores couldn't locate close by.

Dear alders,

I hope you will refer item 83669 and allow the problematic aspects of it to be worked on further.

While I recognize the problems caused by a concentration of liquor stores in one area, the current text of this item would go much further than that, and prevent the issuance of a license in the vicinity of a hospital, a school, a library, or even a park.

This could have unintended consequences:

- Liquor stores may therefore congregate in areas without these amenities. So residents already least-served by the city will be over-served when it comes to liquor stores and the crime that problems of liquor store-dense areas.
- When residents who do live by a park, a hospital, a school, or a library do seek to buy liquor, this ordinance will put the place of retail outside of walking distance. In many cases, this will lead to people driving instead.

We should be striving to make more of Madison's neighborhoods walkable, vibrant, and self-sufficient. Each neighborhood should have access to amenities like parks, schools, libraries, healthcare, and yes, retail such as liquor stores. As currently written, this item is contrary to that goal.

I would fully support an ordinance to limit the density of liquor stores themselves on some purely geographic criteria--stores per square mile, distance between them, or travel time between them. That density of liquor stores in relation to each other is the problem that prompted this item, so let's solve that problem directly, without creating other problems.

Alternatively, let's take it one step further. Drunk driving is a persistent hazard in our community. Therefore, if there's anything we should separate liquor stores from, it's major roads.

Thank you,

Some people who received this message don't often get email from eniles@gmail.com. Learn why this is important

Dear Alders,

In reading through the comments attached to Legistar item 83669 (Amending Section 38.05(9) (a) and creating 38.05(b) and (c) of the Madison General Ordinances related to Class A and Class "A" alcohol beverage licenses to impose geographic limitations on "Class A" and Class "A" license applications...), it has become apparent that concerns that myself and others have raised with our respective alders about this proposed change in policy are not being conveyed to the ALRC or the Council. So, I will attempt to share some of those concerns with you here, in the hopes that during Tuesday's Common Council meeting you will either vote down this item or send it back to the ALRC for further study and revision.

Obviously attempts to reduce the negative impacts of alcohol consumption is a worthy goal, and I have no doubt that the sponsors of this amendment have positive intentions.

Unfortunately, this particular amendment, as it is currently structured, is simply bad policy. The amendment is a drastic and permanent change to city ordinances which would have far-reaching negative impacts on planning and neighborhoods for generations into the future. Given the expansive list of landmarks and the significant geographic range mentioned in this amendment, the practical effect of the change would be to completely calcify Class A licenses in the core of Madison. While this may lead to some minor attrition in the overall density of liquor establishments over time, it will more likely serve to create havoc when current licensees attempt to improve their business, or move, or change ownership. It would also make attracting businesses (including those who serve grocery needs) to infill neighbourhoods much, much harder as they will be effectively excluded from competing with existing businesses who are grandfathered into allowances to sell alcoholic beverages. It does not take much imagination to see how there could be serious unforeseen knock-on effects and unwanted economic consequences from allowing this aggressive change in geographic limitations on "Class A" licenses. It's also easy to predict how this policy could be unfairly weaponized against existing licensee businesses when a group of neighbors has unrelated issues with a particular business or business owner in their community.

There is no need to tie the future Council and ALRC's hands with this amendment in the interest of reducing access to alcohol near certain sites. The ALRC is already enabled to fully consider all aspects of a new application for a Class A license, and the Alders on the Common Council are well within their purview to provide guidance to the ALRC to take special care in noting proximity to certain sites when considering those new licenses. We do not need to permanently amend ordinances in a manner that could drastically and negatively impact Madison's future neighborhoods, when simple guidance to the ALRC could accomplish the same goals.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter,

Have stakeholders from different racial/ethnic and socioeconomic groups—especially those most affected—been informed, involved and represented in the development of this proposal or plan? Who is missing and how can they be engaged?

Not from every racial/ethnic or socioeconomic group.

1. WHAT

a. What is the policy, plan or proposal being analyzed, and what does it seek to accomplish?

The ordinance seeks to geographically limit issuing Class “A” and “Class A” alcohol beverage licenses to establishments that sell alcohol that can be taken away and consumed elsewhere. The goal behind the ordinance is to reduce alcohol-related community problems that are associated with such establishments.

b. What does available data tell you about this issue? (See page 3 for guidance on data resources.)

At the time the proposed ordinance amendment was drafted in February 2024, there were 131 active Class A license holders in the City of Madison. Today, there are 134 active Class A license holders. Based upon 2023 population data for the City of Madison, that translates to 1 license for every approximately 2000 people.
The data also tells us that retail alcohol outlets can be the site of disorder, including alcohol-related disorder and crime. Increased density of retail alcohol outlets have been associated with social harms in the neighborhoods in and around the outlets: disorderly conduct, noise, litter, neighborhood disruption, nuisance, and property damage. Research has shown that limiting alcohol beverage outlet density and growth can be an effective means of reducing the harms associated with excessive alcohol consumption.

c. What data are unavailable or missing?

Data related to specific studies in specific communities related to known alcohol beverage outlets and their impacts on neighborhoods.

a. Who (individuals or groups) could be impacted by the issues related to this policy, plan or proposal?

Potential negative impacts: People of color and those in low income neighborhoods may potentially be faced with reduced access if walking to a store is problematic. People with mobility issues may have difficulty getting to a convenient Class A establishment. People with no form of transportation may have difficulty accessing a convenient liquor store. People who may not want to bring other business or housing to the area because of a liquor store. Affordability—less outlets could potentially result in higher prices. Potential positive impacts: limit or eliminate disorder such as littering and loitering. Less temptation for those trying to abstain and or those who should abstain due to addiction issues. More difficult for underage to purchase alcohol for unsupervised use.

b. Who would benefit?

Society as a whole—less alcohol available would mean less alcohol-related disorder and addiction. May encourage people to not drink as much because they have to put forth more effort to obtain the alcohol. Existing liquor store owners due to less competition. Those running treatment centers and those offering services for unhoused would potentially experience a reduction in issues related to alcohol. Police, fire, and hospitals due to less calls for service and complaints related to alcohol consumption.

c. Who would be burdened?

Those who have mobility problems and who do not have access to transportation. More often, lower income populations have issues and barriers related to transportation. Those seeking a class A license may not be able to afford the business at a different location. Low-income people may end having to pay more for alcohol due to reduced competition.

d. Are there potential disproportionate impacts on communities of color or low-income communities?

The ordinance does not limit the issuance of an alcohol license in specific neighborhoods or areas, it limits the issuance near sensitive locations such as buildings that provide services to unhoused individuals and buildings that provide drug and/or alcohol rehabilitation services to individuals. Those types of businesses can be located anywhere in the City, so if they are not located in low-income communities or those that have more communities of color, it is difficult to see how there would be a disproportionate impact on those groups unless those groups are also challenged with mobility and/or transportation issues and but for the sensitive sites, they would have an alcohol beverage outlet in their neighborhood.

Those who live in multi-family housing may be more inclined to use neighborhood parks and geographic limitations may make it more difficult for them to have events in parks with alcohol.

3. WHY

a. What are potential unintended consequences (social, economic, health, environmental or other)?

Increased drunk driving if people have to drive farther to obtain alcohol. Inflate the value of existing outlets because the license will potentially be more difficult to obtain. Overregulation of commerce. Preventing people from opening a business and/or pursuing a livelihood.

4. HOW: RECOMMENDATIONS SECTION

a. Describe recommended strategies to address adverse impacts, prevent negative unintended consequences and advance racial equity (program, policy, partnership and/or budget/fiscal strategies):

Education of applicants and potential applicants before they invest money in a location only to discover that they would be ineligible for a class A license due to the geographic limitations; Communication on City's website regarding geographic limitations related to sensitive sites that make it clear that the limitations are not negotiable or waivable.

MADISON ALCOHOL ADVISORY COUNCIL

To: City of Madison Common Council
City of Madison Alcohol License Review Committee

From: Madison Alcohol Advisory Council

Date: January 14, 2025

Subject: Opposition to Proposed City of Madison Ordinance Related to Geographic Limitations on “Class A” and Class “A” License Applications

As members of the alcohol beverage industry, we write to reiterate our opposition to the proposed ordinance (File #83669) to impose geographic limitations on “Class A” and Class “A” license applications.

While the goal of addressing excessive alcohol use and related issues is laudable, we do not believe blanket geographic limitations on alcohol beverage retailers to be an effective strategy. As a result, we respectfully urge the Alcohol License Review Committee and Common Council to reject this proposal.

First, by exempting large, institutional and chain grocery stores from the new license restrictions, the proposed ordinance discriminates against small, independent businesses, many of which are owned by persons of color and new residents to our community and country. We are unaware of any evidence that shows alcohol related disorder and crime is tied to the location of Class A licensed establishments, or a density of these licensees. Moreover, there certainly is no evidence indicating that small, neighborhood retail outlets are more problematic for the City than large, regional grocery stores.

Another consequence of eliminating small, neighborhood retail outlets is that it would likely diminish local foot and bicycle traffic while encouraging the use of motorized vehicles to travel to larger, regional grocery stores. As noted in the recent Racial Equity and Social Justice Initiative Analysis, and public comments, this has the potential to increase drunk driving rates. Additionally, by discouraging the development of small neighborhood retail stores, the problem of food deserts in the community is almost certain to be exacerbated.

Public support for the proposed policy also appears to be minimal. According to a University of Wisconsin Population Health Institute survey of opinions regarding alcohol use and related problems in the Greenbush-Vilas neighborhood, the majority of respondents felt that limiting alcohol outlet density would be ineffective¹. Few people surveyed thought that extending the City's Alcohol Licensing Density Ordinance would be an effective method of limiting excessive drinking.

As you know, the City has experienced a significant rise in locally owned and operated breweries, wineries and distilleries in recent years. Unfortunately, the proposed ordinance has the potential to negatively impact these small craft producers as it would result in fewer small, neighborhood retail outlets who are more likely to sell locally produced alcohol beverages than the large grocery chains which are unaffected by the license limitations.

Lastly, it is important to recognize the proposed ordinance is unnecessary as the Alcohol License Review Committee and Common Council already hold the authority to reject, revoke, or refuse to renew alcohol licenses. Limiting the number of alcohol beverage retail licenses can currently be done on a license-by-license basis as each applicant comes before the ALRC and Council.

For these reasons, we respectfully ask the ALRC and Common Council to reject the proposed geographic limitations on "Class A" and Class "A" licenses in the City of Madison.

Thank you for your consideration.

Members of the Alcohol Licensing Review Committee:

The Greater Madison Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors remains opposed to the proposed changes to Madison General Ordinances (File #83669) that would place new citywide regulations and restrictions on alcohol licensing.

We appreciate the author's communication and desire to seek input on the issue from local businesses. Ultimately, we believe this is a solution in search of a problem with potential significant consequences for small businesses and entrepreneurs.

Addressing chronic alcohol use is a worthwhile and understandable objective, but a citywide policy that does not consider unique neighborhood characteristics and needs is an ill-advised approach.

From a business perspective, there are still many unanswered questions. What does this mean for businesses looking to renovate? Will this policy serve as a disincentive to making improvements for fear of losing a license? Blanket policies treat all Class A licensed establishments the same, including new, innovative business models that serve as neighborhood gathering establishments with multiple functions, including coffee shops, arcades, bookstores and tasting rooms. Are these the type of businesses we want to reduce in Madison?

Perhaps most importantly as to why this is a solution in search of a problem is the process. The Alcohol Licensing Review Committee already has the authority to reject and renew alcohol licenses where problems occur.

Again, while we appreciate the intent and transparency, there are other ways to tackle these issues beyond a citywide blanket policy that stands to negatively impact small business.

Feel free to contact me directly if you have any questions or comments.

Thank you.

MEMORANDUM

DATE: January 15, 2025

TO: Alcohol License and Review Committee (ALRC)

FROM: Julia Olsen, Supervisor, Substance Use Prevention and Harm Reduction Unit

SUBJECT: Geographic limitations on “Class A” and Class “A” license applications

Public Health Madison and Dane County supports efforts to reduce youth access to alcohol and lower the burden of alcohol in Dane County.

With the introduced amendments to Section 38.05(9)(a) and creating 38.05(b) and (c) of City of Madison ordinance to limit alcohol retail outlets by geographic proximity, the City of Madison is taking a proactive stance backed by evidence-based research, to reduce the burden of alcohol.

Increased Class A off-premises alcohol outlet density is associated with increased underage drinking, increased assaults, street violence, domestic (and intimate partner) violence, motor vehicle crashes, and other forms of injury. i

According to the Wisconsin Alcohol Policy Project, multiple studies have shown that the more alcohol is available in a neighborhood, the more adolescents consume alcohol. ii A key study showed that for every 10% increase in overall alcohol outlet density there was a 17% increase in the odds that a teenager would drink alcohol the next year. iii In other words, the more alcohol outlets there are in a community, the more teens drink. One effective way to keep the number of alcohol outlets low and allow reduction by attrition is to not grant licenses for new alcohol outlets. The proposed ordinance would effectively prohibit new Class A licenses for liquor stores and gas station/convenience stores in areas within 1,320 feet of facilities that provide services for unhoused individuals, facilities that provide mental health or substance use treatment, and public parks.

Public Health believes that this extension of geographic limitations from the already established 300ft of schools, churches, hospitals, and libraries benefits Public Health and reduces the burden of alcohol in Dane County.
