Title

Request from Olbrich Botanical Gardens to Close Bolz Conservatory August 9-11, 2023 for Installation of GLEAM Exhibit.

Body

In preparation for the upcoming GLEAM exhibition, the Bolz Conservatory needs to be closed for the installation of the Alumphora exhibit piece. The installation needs to use a scissor lift to suspend multiple sculpture in different areas throughout the Conservatory. In order to complete this work safely, it is best to conduct the installation with no public inside the Conservatory. Thus we are asking to close the Bolz Conservatory Wednesday, August 9-Friday, August 11, 2023 for this installation.
