Pursuant to Sec. 3.27(2) of the Madison General Ordinances, " ... provisions of this section shall not necessarily apply with reference to membership on special study committees where in the judgement of the mayor and two-thirds (2/3) of the Common Council, the best interests of the city will be served by the appointment of certain nonresident members who are particularly well qualified by reasons of education, background, and experience"

RATIONALE: The mayor has made it his personal commitment to attempt to diversify all city commissions to reflect the diverse makeup of the city.

The Affirmative Action Commission has several openings. The Mayor's Office and the Department of Civil Rights have made extensive efforts to gain the interest and commitment from members of Madison Asian Americans to serve on City committees and commissions. The greater Madison area has over 12,000 Asians Americans. Meetings with Asian American organizations, advertisements and personalized mailings have resulted in little interest from Asian Americans residing in the City to fill current vacancies.

One individual that who has indicated an interest in serving on the AAC is Ms.Heidi Pascual. Ms. Pascual was born and raised in the Philippines, and immigrated to the US in 1998. She is a naturalized citizen of Madison. In the years she has lived in Madison, she has worked as an Associate Editor and Sales Director for the Madison Times newspaper. In November 2004, she founded her own publication, Asian Wisconzine. In addition to being the editor and publisher of her magazine, she is a columnist for new The Capital City Hues.

She is also a member of the Wisconsin Women of Color Network, Inc, the Wisconsin Organization for Asian Americans, and Philippine-American Association of Madison.
