Fiscal Note

The changes included in these labor agreements that have a fiscal effect include a half-hour minimum of pay for actual non-routine work performed between Midnight and 6AM, a minimum of two hours of pay if court is scheduled outside of normal shift and is cancelled with less than 24 hours notice, and allowing employees on layoff to use sick leave for up to six months to purchase health insurance if no other option is available. Based on prior activity, these provisions are expected to have minimal fiscal effect.
