Title

State Cheesemakers Triumph Again at World Championship Cheese Contest

Body

WHEREAS, Madison's Monona Terrace and Convention Center was once again the host for the World Championship Cheese Contest; and

WHEREAS, the contest, held every other year, had a record 2,504 entries totaling about 50,000 pounds of cheese; and

WHEREAS, entries came from 24 countries; and

WHEREAS, judges for the event traveled to Madison for the event from 15 nations; and

WHEREAS, Wisconsin cheesemakers topped 30 of the contest's 82 categories and had four entries in the Sweet 16 finals; and

WHEREAS, Wisconsin cheesemakers had the top three finishers in nine of the categories; and

WHEREAS, there were no entries from California in the Sweet 16 finals; and

WHEREAS, Wisconsin's many awards clearly settle the question of who has the happiest cows; and

NOW, THEREFORE, the Mayor and Common Council commend the Wisconsin Cheesemakers Association and its members for excelling at their craft and wishes them much future success in their domination of the World Championship Cheese Contest.
