Fiscal Note

It is unknown precisely how many additional tickets may be issued, and how much additional revenue may be derived from forfeitures, but, based on data from the past several years, MPD estimates that perhaps 2,000 to 4,000 additional tickets may be issued annually, generating an estimated $60,000 to $120,000 annually in additional General Fund revenues (plus a small amount derived from forfeitures for tickets issued to property owner-violators).
