Title

Recognizing and commending Lorri Wendorf Corrigan for her professional and personal dedication to the City of Madison on the occasion of her retirement.

Body

WHEREAS, Lorri Wendorf Corrigan is retiring from the City of Madison on January 18, 2015 after 36 years of service to the city; and

WHEREAS, Lorri Wendorf Corrigan began her career as a clerk "with typing ability" in the Family Support Unit of the City of Madison in 1979; and

WHEREAS, Since Lorri's promotion in 1990 to the Neighborhood Services Coordinator position in the Office of Community Services she has been a tireless advocate for resident engagement in community processes, neighborhood based services and programming and neighborhood centers. In this role she has worked closely with Joining Forces for Families and neighborhood police officers across the city; and

WHEREAS, though Lorri's love of gardening had nothing to do with her appointment as the Weed and Seed Coordinator, she provided leadership for one of Madison's first neighborhood focused interdepartmental initiatives; and

WHEREAS, Lorri participated in planning groups for the City of Madison Neighborhood Conferences, the Neighborhoods USA conference and has been a founding member of the current and past iterations of Neighborhood Resource Teams; and

WHEREAS, Lorri received training in Quality Improvement methods and mediation and has utilized these skills in the service of various departments and neighborhood based projects; and

WHEREAS, Lorri has played an integral part in engaging residents in city efforts in the redevelopment of several neighborhoods including Bridge Lake Point and Allied Drive; and

WHEREAS, Neighborhood Center Directors have lauded her dedication to neighborhoods and her advocacy on behalf of centers; and

WHEREAS, Lorri has been a MPSEA member for 25 years, served as president for the last 9 years and dedicated herself to fair compensation, equity and workers rights for all city workers; and

WHEREAS, Lorri was recently the recipient of the 2015 North Star High Impact Award awarded by the Northside Planning Council for her many years of service as a city staff member who has safeguarded the best interests of the Northside; and

AND FINALLY, WHEREAS, Lorri timed her retirement so as to avoid any involvement in the next Neighborhood Center Report.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Common Council recognize and congratulate Lorri Wendorf Corrigan on her retirement from the city of Madison.
