Title

Dissolving the President's Task Force on Critical Issues Affecting (Impacting) the Black Community

Body

WHEREAS, the President's Task Force on Critical Issues Affecting (Impacting) the Black Community was created by adoption of RES-20-00502, Legislative File No. 61015 and adopted by the Common Council on July 14, 2020; and

WHEREAS, the task force held a meeting and determined that in order to have free flow and private communications among the members they wished to be dissolved to work independently on identifying issues,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Common Council dissolves the President's Task Force on Critical Issues Affecting (Impacting) the Black Community and that African American community residents are encouraged work independently to identity the issues that impact them specifically around policing, health, affordable housing, economic development, gentrification, and any other barriers they identify.
