Fiscal Note

Actual costs for this double-fill will depend upon the exact hire date of the new Surveyor, as well as the new employee's step and longevity status as determined by education and experience. One reasonable estimate would involve a double-fill from June 7 through July 30, based upon the Engineering Division's preferred start date and the remaining vacation days of the incumbent. Double-filling the position for this eight week period would cost approximately $8,736, or $12,308, including benefits. Costs would be absorbed through the management of salary savings within the Engineering Division. No additional appropriation is necessary.
