

Legislation Text

File #: 54439, Version: 1

Title

Presentation: Poetry Recitation by Charles E. Payne - "Madison Flood Prose"

Body

Charles Payne considers himself a self-taught spoken word artist with an emphasis in performance poetry that encompasses personal narrative and social commentary. He has significant performing experience in the Southwest, the Midwest, and with the National Poetry Slam (NPS). He believes prose and poetry are powerful tools that can be used to create real dialogue across privilege, gender and race.