Fiscal Note

The Water Utility administers the City of Madison's Municipal Services Bill, which bills for water, sewer, stormwater, landfill remediation, and urban forestry charges. Currently, Municipal Service Bill debts may be unrecoverable for customers that live outside the City. The proposed resolution authorizes the City of Madison to recover debts on delinquent accounts that may otherwise be unrecoverable.

The Water Utility charges a 1% late fee per month for customers that do not pay their Municipal Services Bill by the due date. This fee was waived in March 2020 due to COVID-19, and has not yet been reinstated. The following table shows the amount of water payments that were in arrears in March to June of 2019 compared with the same months in 2020. This does not include any Municipal Services Bill charges other than water.

	2019	2020
March	$487,082	$557,234
April	$605,164	$651,127
May	$742,867	$751,295
June	$814,716	$811,797

No appropriation is required.
