Fiscal Note

The proposed resolution authorizes the City to submit a grant application for Section 5310 Enhanced Mobility of Seniors and Individuals with Disabilities through the U.S. Department of Transportation. Funding from this grant supports the Paratransit Service within Metro's operating budget. As proposed in the application materials, the total grant award will be $327,664 and the local match for these funds is $74,800. The City of Madison will fund $20,550 of the local share. Additionally, Metro Transit is reimbursed $29,788 for grant administration. The federal funding along with the City's local match were included in Metro's 2021 operating budget. No additional appropriation is anticipated at this time. Please see the attached documents for additional project budget details.
