Fiscal Note

The proposed resolution authorizes the City to submit a grant application for Section 5310 Enhanced Mobility of Seniors and Individuals with Disabilities through the U.S. Department of Transportation. As proposed in the application materials, the total grant award will be $545,825, and the local match for these funds is $162,219. The City of Madison will fund $21,190 of the local share, receive $84,760 in grant funds, and receive an additional $45,902 to cover grant administration. Funding from this grant supports the Paratransit Service within Metro's operating budget. Metro will pass through other funding to sub-recipients. The federal funding along with the City's local match were included in Metro's 2023 operating budget. No additional appropriation is required. Please see the attached documents for additional project budget details.
